Dear FCC: It is outrageous to think that Payola not being disclosed should be legitimized or an acceptable part of our culture. As an independent artist, there are very few, if any options to have my music played on commercial radio. Allowing payola to be non disclosed would make it virtually impossible for independent artists (who don't have anywhere near the kind of money needed) to be able to pay for airplay in the same way that a major record label can.