I am completely appalled by the notion of Net Neutrality being compromised by companies such as Comcast and Time Warner. It is absolutely wrong and harmful to hand over such power, in the palms of a handful of companies. Net Neutrality should remain as it is and under no circumstances be changed or altered. So please keep your dignity and honor, and do not let yourself be sold and soiled by greedy pigs like Comcast and Time Warner.