Do not undo what was corrected over fifty years ago at the height of the first round of Payola. Let the regulations put in place stand. Today's musicians need your help.