Please keep payola out of radio! I urge you not to allow rules regarding proper and reasonable statements about paid song placement to be relaxed. It is more important than ever for music lovers and creators to have a chance to hear a diverse selection of music and know when someone is paying to control that.