"In bringing out information that someone wants to keep hidden, you are acting on behalf of all citizens when you contribute to the people's right to know. Identifying then ending Payola creates a better informed public.

Do not deny all citizens the right to know the hidden side of power. All transparency is not equal. Accountability for the BEST form of transparency is in your hands. Contribute to the people's right to know truth. Contribute to the quality of our democracy. Contribute to reducing corruption. Contribute to ending Payola.

Absolute and full disclosure may not be attained, yet that shouldn't stop you from trying to make ""truth"" a fundamental aspiration. The duty of truth requires telling, requires full transparency, be the conscious for the public good. I implore you to Stop Payola.
