"Where is accountability and responsibility in this? It should be required that public and transparent knowledge be given when someone is buying the success of a song on the radio, TV or otherwise, just as with political campaigns. Otherwise, it's payola and illegal."