A bad song of a mediocre artist plays on the radio because of payola, while a good song coming from a good musician is lost in oblivion if he or she does not pay payola. It's obvious: in the payola way things are going in the wrong direction. Also Radio in a democratic country should be democratic as well.