Payola is like Citizens United. It does not serve the public good. Creativity is nullified when the same music is playing over and again to bored ears. Minds shut down. Short cuts are never a good idea when it comes to future generations being influenced by the examples of poor governance.