I am a lifelong fan of music and I work in music licensing industry in Los Angeles. Although I may not listen to commercial radio frequently and prefer public communities (KCRW, KXLU, KCSN), I know it is an invaluable source of culture for the city and it needs to be kept as transparent as possible.