Re:  Protecting and Promoting the Open Internet, GN Docket No. 14-28;
Framework for Broadband Internet Service, GN Docket No. 10-127

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On February 13, 2015, Michael Olsen and Emmett O'Keefe from Cablevision Systems Corporation and the undersigned spoke with Louis Peraertz and Rebecca Goodheart. On February 19, 2015, the same Cablevision representatives met with: Gigi Sohn, Daniel Alvarez, and Eric Feigenbaum; Priscilla Argeris; Nicholas Degani; Robin Colwell; and Matthew DelNero, Stephanie Weiner, Scott Jordan and Claude Aiken. Justin Lilley of TeleMedia Policy Corp., also representing Cablevision, attended the meetings with Nicholas Degani, Robin Colwell, and Priscilla Argeris. In these meetings, Cablevision explained that the Commission should carefully consider the specific characteristics of unlicensed WiFi service in applying any open Internet rules.1 Additionally, Cablevision argued that, in the event the Commission decides to reclassify broadband Internet access service as a “telecommunications service,” the Commission should ensure that there are no new barriers to broadband investment.2

Please contact me if you have any questions regarding this meeting.

Sincerely,

/s/ Samuel L. Feder
