This merger needs to be blocked. It is a horrible restraint of competition. The merger is very likely to cause rates to rise due to lack of competition. It limits choices to individuals. It moves toward a very small choice for consumers.

For heaven's sake, do something on behalf of the citizens of this country for a change. It is ever so obvious that this agency is beholden to media conglomerates.

Robert Tharalsen