Deny the petition. This will not help competition. It never does creating less competitors and allowing them to divvy up where they provide service. It effectively creates micro monopolies that the local consumer cannot benefit from. It’s bs and it needs to be shut down in its entirety.