I couldn't be more opposed to the “net neutrality” rules.

Stay out of internet activity. When the government can successfully run a postal department, and rail system we can have another conversation.

GK Donaho