Federal-State Joint Board on Universal Service, CC Docket No. 96-45
Lifeline and Link Up, WC Docket No. 03-109

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On March 9, 2011, Jack Miller, EVP and COO of Solix, Inc. (“Solix”), and Eric Seguin, GM-State & Local Government Programs of Solix, and Gary Murad of O’Neill & Associates, had three meetings with the following individuals regarding the above-referenced proceedings:

- Margaret McCarthy, Policy Advisor, Office of Commissioner Copps
- Zac Katz, Legal Advisor, Office of Chairman Genachowski; Trent Harkrader, Chief, TAPD, WCB; Kimberly Scardino, Attorney Advisor, TAPD, WCB; Patrick Halley, Policy Advisor, WCB; Carol Mattey, Deputy Chief, WCB; and Dana Shaffer, Deputy Managing Director, OMD
- Bradley Gillen, Legal Advisor, Office of Commissioner Baker

Solix provided an overview of its general background and areas of core competence as well as its experience in the administration of public benefit programs and centralized Lifeline administration. Solix discussed its major customer programs, including operational solutions it has implemented as Administrator of centralized low-income programs in Texas and California, and Lifeline eligibility determination services being provided to a consortium of carriers in Arkansas and to wireline and wireless service providers in a number of other states. Solix also provided a sample process flow depicting data transfers into and out of a national Lifeline database, and discussed factors for consideration in designing such a centralized process.
Pursuant to Commission rules, a copy of this letter and Solix’s presentation are being filed via ECFS with your office. Please feel free to contact me with any questions.

Sincerely,

/s/ Eric D. Seguin
