During the 7 years I have had Charter I have noticed a general degrade in services. Extremely poor packaging of content, ever increasing fees and a generally poor attitude on the part of customer service. While their internet speeds have grown considerably the cable TV remains poor. Allowance of an ala-carte selection process should be mandated. The proposed merger would be equally damaging to competition as the last attempted merger and should be equally denied.