It doesn't affect me but I find it horrific that inmates families are forced to pay such ob sorbent rates to stay in contact with family. Studies have shown that a strong support and family system reduce recidivism. We should encourage this support not discourage it by allowing this monopoly to proceed. Calls should be capped at a $1.