Please do not allow funding for video relay to be cut. Video relay is the hearing person’s equivalent of a telephone. It is a basic communication tool that has brought large numbers of deaf people closer to the mainstream, has improved their quality of life, made their worlds safer and more connected. Video relay also helps keep deaf people productive and engaged in American and world commerce. It would be a huge step backward to withdraw crucial funding for this much-needed communications tool.