Re: Notice of Ex Parte Presentation
Tribune Company, Debtor-in-Possession
MB Docket No. 10-104

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Tribune Company Debtor-in-Possession (“Tribune”), is submitting this letter to report on a meeting at the Commission regarding the above-referenced docket.

On October 11, 2012, Shaun Sheehan, Vice President of Tribune; John Feore as attorney for Tribune; Richard E. Wiley, as attorney for JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.; Tom W. Davidson, as attorney for Oaktree Tribune, L.P. and Angelo, Gordon & Co., L.P.; and James Stenger, as attorney for The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors, met with Elizabeth Andrión, Chief Counsel and Senior Legal Advisor to Chairman Julius Genachowski.

The Tribune representatives reported that the Bankruptcy Court Order approving the company’s plan of reorganization is effective and has not been stayed. They noted that approval of the pending FCC applications is now the only regulatory hurdle remaining for Tribune to emerge from bankruptcy. The Tribune representatives urged the Commission to take all steps to act expeditiously on the applications in order to allow Tribune to exit bankruptcy as soon as possible.

The Tribune representatives also discussed the current business and competitive challenges facing the company’s media properties and particularly the newspapers and the opportunities that would present themselves for the company once it has emerged from bankruptcy and can begin to execute a forward looking strategic plan.

The Tribune representatives briefly reviewed the company’s history as a pioneering broadcaster and its many years of serving the public in its broadcast markets.
