NOTICE OF APPARENT LIABILITY FOR FORFEITURE

Adopted: December 6, 2007

Released: December 7, 2007

By the Chief, Audio Division, Media Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. The Commission has before it the captioned application of Lewiston Christian Radio Association (the "Licensee"), for renewal of its license for low power FM Station KPLL-LP, Lewiston, Idaho (the "Station"). In this Memorandum Opinion and Order and Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture ("NAL") issued pursuant to Sections 309(k) and 503(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the "Act"), and Section 1.80 of the Commission's Rules (the "Rules"),¹ by the Chief, Audio Division, Media Bureau, by authority delegated under Section 0.283 of the Rules,² we find that the Licensee apparently willfully violated Section 73.3539 of the Rules,³ by failing to file a timely license renewal application for the Station, and apparently willfully and repeatedly violated Section 301 of the Act,⁴ by engaging in unauthorized operation of the Station after its authorization had expired. Based upon our review of the facts and circumstances before us, we conclude that the Licensee is apparently liable for a monetary forfeiture in the amount of five hundred dollars ($500), and we grant the captioned KPLL-LP renewal application.

II. BACKGROUND

2. Section 73.3539(a) of the Rules requires that applications for renewal of license for broadcast stations must be filed "not later than the first day of the fourth full calendar month prior to the expiration date of the license sought to be renewed."⁵ An application for renewal of KPLL-LP's license should have been filed by June 1, 2005, four months prior to the Station's October 1, 2005, license expiration date,⁶ but was not. In fact, the Licensee did not file the renewal application until March 30,

2007. On that same date, the Licensee filed a request for special temporary authorization (“STA”) to continue KPLL-LP operations pending consideration of the late-filed renewal application.⁷ The staff granted the STA Request on April 16, 2007, and it was to expire on October 16, 2007.⁸ The Licensee filed a timely request for extension of the STA on October 16, 2007,⁹ which remains pending. In the STA Request, the Licensee indicated that it inadvertently failed to file the license renewal application.¹⁰

III. DISCUSSION

3. Proposed Forfeiture. In this case, the Licensee has failed to file a timely license renewal application for KPLL-LP as required by Section 73.3539(a) of the Rules. Moreover, it continued Station operation for 17 months after its license had expired on October 1, 2005, before filing an appropriate renewal application and STA request to so operate, in violation of Section 301 of the Act. Notwithstanding the Licensee’s explanation that its failure to file a timely renewal application for KPLL-LP was inadvertent, licensees are obligated to comply fully with the Rules, including filing a timely renewal application and maintaining in effect the station’s authorization.¹¹ Here, the Licensee did not do so.

4. This NAL is issued pursuant to Section 503(b)(1)(B) of the Act. Under that provision, any person who is determined by the Commission to have failed willfully or repeatedly to comply with any provision of the Act or any rule, regulation, or order issued by the Commission shall be liable to the United States for a forfeiture penalty.¹² Section 312(f)(1) of the Act defines willful as “the conscious and deliberate commission or omission of [any] act, irrespective of any intent to violate” the law.¹³ The legislative history to Section 312(f)(1) of the Act clarifies that this definition of willful applies to both Sections 312 and 503(b) of the Act,¹⁴ and the Commission has so interpreted the term in the Section 503(b) context.¹⁵ Section 312(f)(2) of the Act provides that “[t]he ‘repeated,’ when used with reference to the commission or omission of any act, means the commission or omission of such act more than once or, if such commission or omission is continuous, for more than one day.”¹⁶

¹⁰ In the captioned renewal application, the Licensee explains that it received its initial covering license for KPLL-LP on February 9, 2004 (see File No. BLL-20030918ACH), and thought that broadcast station licenses had a term of eight years; it did not realize that the Station’s license actually expired on October 1, 2005 with other Idaho station licenses. See captioned application, Exhibit 6.

5. The Commission's Forfeiture Policy Statement and Section 1.80(b)(4) of the Rules establish a base forfeiture amount of $3,000 for the failure to file a required form.¹⁷ The guidelines also specify a base forfeiture amount of $10,000 for construction and/or operation without an instrument of authorization for the service.¹⁸ In determining the appropriate forfeiture amount, we may adjust the base amount upward or downward by considering the factors enumerated in Section 503(b)(2)(D) of the Act, including "the nature, circumstances, extent and gravity of the violation, and, with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, any history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and such other matters as justice may require."¹⁹

6. In this case, the Licensee failed to file a timely renewal application and continued Station operations for 17 months before filing the appropriate renewal application and a request for STA to so operate. Nevertheless, because it had previously been licensed to operate Station KPLL-LP, the latter transgression is not comparable to "pirate" wireless operations, which typically have been subject to forfeitures of approximately $10,000. Taking into consideration these facts and all of the factors required by Section 503(b)(2)(D) of the Act and the Forfeiture Policy Statement, we will reduce the forfeiture from the base amount to two hundred fifty dollars ($250) for each violation. Thus, we propose a forfeiture in the total amount of five hundred dollars ($500).

7. License Renewal Application. In evaluating an application for license renewal, the Commission's decision is governed by Section 309(k) of the Act.²⁰ That section provides that if, upon consideration of the application and pleadings, we find that (1) the station has served the public interest, convenience, and necessity; (2) there have been no serious violations of the Act or the Rules; and (3) there have been no other violations which, taken together, constitute a pattern of abuse, we are to grant the renewal application.²¹ If, however, the licensee fails to meet that standard, the Commission may deny the application – after notice and opportunity for a hearing under Section 309(e) of the Act – or grant the application "on terms and conditions that are appropriate, including a renewal for a term less than the maximum otherwise permitted."²²

8. We find that the Licensee's violations of Section 73.3539 of the Rules and Section 301 of the Act do not constitute "serious violations" warranting designation for evidentiary hearing. Moreover, we find no evidence of violations that, when considered together, evidence a pattern of abuse.²³ Further,

²⁰ 47 U.S.C. § 309(k).

²¹ 47 U.S.C. § 309(k)(1). The renewal standard was amended to read as described by Section 204(a) of the Telecommunications Act of 1996, Pub. L. No. 104-104, 110 Stat. 56 (1996). See Implementation of Sections 204(a) and 204(c) of the Telecommunications Act of 1996 (Broadcast License Renewal Procedures), Order, 11 FCC Rcd 6363 (1996).

²² 47 U.S.C. §§ 309(k)(2), 309(k)(3).

²³ For example, we do not find here that the Licensee's Station operation "was conducted in an exceedingly careless, inept and negligent manner and that the licensee is either incapable of correcting or unwilling to correct the operating deficiencies." See Heart of the Black Hills Stations, Decision, 32 FCC 2d 196, 198 (1971). Nor do we find on the record here that "the number, nature and extent" of the violations indicate that "the licensee cannot be relied upon to operate [the station] in the future in accordance with the requirements of its licenses and the Commission's Rules." Heart of the Black Hills Stations, 32 FCC 2d at 200. See also Center for Study and we find that Station KPLL-LP served the public interest, convenience, and necessity during the subject license term. We will, therefore, grant the license renewal application below.
