FORFEITURE ORDER

Adopted: March 20, 2008

Released: March 21, 2008

By the Chief, Audio Division, Media Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. In this Forfeiture Order ("Order"), we issue a monetary forfeiture in the amount of one thousand dollars ($1,000), to Dick Broadcasting Company, Inc., of Tennessee ("DBC"), licensee of Station WKRR(FM), Winston-Salem, North Carolina, (the "Station"), for its willful and repeated violation of Section 73.3526 of the Commission's Rules (the "Rules").<sup>1</sup> The violations involve DBC's failure to properly maintain the Station's public inspection file.

2. On June 25, 2004, the Bureau issued a Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture ("NAL") in the amount of nine thousand dollars ($9,000) to DBC for this violation.<sup>2</sup> DBC filed a Request for Reduction of Proposed Forfeiture ("Request") on July 26, 2004.

II. BACKGROUND

3. As noted in the NAL, on July 31, 2003, DBC filed an application to renew the license of WKRR(FM). Section III, Item 3 of the license renewal application form, FCC Form 303-S, requests that the licensee certify that the documentation required by Section 73.3526 of the Rules has been placed in the station's public inspection file at the appropriate times. DBC indicated "No" to that certification, attaching as an exhibit an explanation that the issues/programs reports for the period from 1996 through 2000, were inadvertently purged during a previous review of the file.<sup>3</sup> On June 25, 2004, the staff advised DBC of its apparent liability for a forfeiture of $9,000 for willfully and repeatedly violating Section 73.3526 of the Rules, based on the fact that, by its admission, all issues/programs lists from 1996-2000 – a total of 19 lists, according to the staff – were missing from WKRR(FM)'s public inspection file. In response, DBC filed the subject Request.

4. In support of its Request, DBC states that that it is confident that the reports were prepared during the period and that it has maintained them on a weekly basis since that time. It also states that it has prepared a quarterly summary with the weekly reports as a backup. DBC now requests that the forfeiture be reduced to comply with other forfeitures involving violations it claims are indistinguishable from DBC's violation. It goes on to argue that other proceedings in which the Bureau has assessed $9,000 forfeitures against licensees for public file rule violations have involved more serious abuses than DBC's inadvertent purging of Station WKRR's issues and programs lists from a four year period. Citing Melody Music, Inc., v. FCC,<sup>4</sup> DBC argues that the Bureau's policy of equal treatment of similarly situated parties dictates that the Bureau reduce DBC's forfeiture. DBC asserts these reasons warrant a reduction of the assessed forfeiture.

III. DISCUSSION

5. Section 73.3526 of the Rules requires that certain items be retained in the public file, including quarterly issues/programs lists. We determine that DBC willfully and repeatedly violated Section 73.3526(e)(12) of the Rules<sup>5</sup> based on its admission that issues/programs lists were purged and that these lists could not be recreated. The proposed forfeiture amount in this case was assessed in accordance with Section 503(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the "Act"), <sup>6</sup> Section 1.80 of the Rules,<sup>7</sup> and the Commission's Forfeiture Policy Statement.<sup>8</sup> In examining DBC's Request, Section 503(b) of the Act<sup>9</sup> and the other cited authority require that we take into account the nature, circumstances, extent and gravity of the violation, and with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, any history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and other such matters as justice may require.

6. We have examined DBC's Request pursuant to the statutory factors above, and in conjunction with the Forfeiture Policy Statement. As a result of our review, we credit the licensee's representation that the requisite issues/programs lists were generated and timely placed in Station WKRR(FM)'s public inspection file, but subsequently were accidentally discarded. Under these circumstances, we reduce the $9,000 forfeiture proposed against DBC to $1,000.<sup>10</sup>
