SECOND PROTECTIVE ORDER

Adopted: December 16, 2009

Released: December 16, 2009

By the Chief, Wireless Telecommunications Bureau:

1. On November 19, 2009, the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau (the "Bureau") issued a Protective Order (the "First Protective Order") regarding confidential or proprietary documents that have been or may be submitted by Atlantic Tele-Network, Inc. and certain of its subsidiaries ("ATN") and Cellco Partnership d/b/a Verizon Wireless and certain of its subsidiaries ("Verizon Wireless" and, together with ATN, the "Applicants") and others that have or may become parties to this proceeding (individually, each a "Submitting Party," and collectively, the "Submitting Parties").

2. On November 19, 2009, the Bureau issued a request for information to the Applicants. On December 1, 2009, the Applicants requested issuance of a second protective order that would provide additional protection beyond that afforded in the First Protective Order to certain information that the Applicants intend to submit in their responses to the Bureau's request. The Applicants assert that the information for which they are seeking enhanced protection is similar to information that was previously afforded second level protection by the Commission. This level of protection, the Applicants state, was provided to restrict other parties' in-house counsel from gaining access to highly confidential information. For each response for which the Applicants seek heightened protection, the Applicants explain why the documents and information at issue are highly confidential and competitively sensitive.

2 Letter from Ruth Milkman, Chief, Wireless Telecommunications Bureau, to Michael Samscock, Verizon Wireless, and to Douglas J. Minster, Atlantic Tele-Network, Inc. (WT Docket 09-119) (Nov. 19, 2009).

3 Letter from Jonathan V. Cohen, Wilkinson Barker Knauer, LLP (for ATN) and Nancy J. Victory, Wiley Rein LLP (for Verizon Wireless) to Marlene H. Dortch, Secretary, Federal Communications Commission (Dec. 1, 2009) ("Request for Second Level Protective Order").

3. Bullock Cellular, Inc., Pineland Cellular, Inc., Planters Rural Cellular, Inc., and Plant Cellular RSA 8, Inc. (collectively, “Georgia Partners”) request that the Commission confirm that any protective order adopted in this proceeding not apply to the Georgia Partners, on the asserted grounds that “[i]nformation similar to that which ATN and Verizon would be submitting to the FCC in response to the Commission’s November 19, 2009 letter of inquiry is subject to nondisclosure and confidentiality protections pursuant to a Consent Protective Order issued by the Georgia Court in connection with the Georgia litigation.”<sup>5</sup> In the event the Commission determines to apply any protective order issued in this proceeding to the Georgia Partners, they “oppose any and all limitations requested by ATN and Verizon in their Request,” on the basis that withholding such information from the Georgia Partners would prevent them from effectively prosecuting their petition to deny in this proceeding and would lead to an incomplete record before the Commission.<sup>6</sup>

4. The Applicants replied to the Georgia Partners filing, asserting that a grant of either of the Georgia Partners’ requests “would run afoul of Commission policy regarding the treatment of confidential information and would afford insufficient protection to the highly confidential materials to be filed in the instant proceeding.”<sup>7</sup> The Applicants assert that by requesting that the terms of any protective order not be applicable to them, the Georgia Partners are challenging the very purpose of the protective order, which is to serve the dual purpose of protecting competitively significant information while allowing limited disclosure for a specific public purpose.<sup>8</sup> The Applicants claim that the Consent Protective Order would not protect the highly confidential information to be submitted in this proceeding, as that order applies only to Confidential Materials as defined in that order and produced during discovery or otherwise filed in that court proceeding, and the court’s Consent Protective Order would not cover submissions to the Commission.<sup>9</sup>

5. Consistent with past practice, the Commission will in this proceeding grant more limited access to those materials which, if released to competitors, would allow those competitors to gain a significant advantage in the marketplace.<sup>10</sup> Accordingly, we will permit persons submitting such documents and information to designate those materials as Highly Confidential and, as provided below, we will limit access to such materials to Outside Counsel of Record, their employees, and Outside Consultants and experts whom they retain to assist them in this proceeding. We will also limit parties, as detailed below, and again consistent with past practice, to using the Highly Confidential Information solely for this Commission proceeding and we will generally prohibit parties from using such information for any other purpose, including any business, governmental, or commercial purposes, or in other administrative, regulatory, or judicial proceedings. These limitations will apply to the Georgia Partners to the same extent they apply to any other party to this proceeding. With regard to Georgia Partners' argument that they are bound by a Georgia court's Consent Protective Order and thus a protective order is not necessary here, we conclude that the Consent Protective Order does not encompass documents submitted in this proceeding and does not provide the same level of protection as we seek to provide by means of this protective order. Moreover, the Consent Protective Order by its terms limits use of the covered Confidential Materials solely in connection with the court litigation,<sup>11</sup> which would prevent the Commission's examination of any materials not separately filed in this proceeding.

<sup>10</sup> See, e.g., Applications of AT&T Inc. and Centennial Communications Corp. For Consent to Transfer Control of Licenses, Authorizations, and Spectrum Leasing Arrangements, WT Docket No. 08-246, Second Protective Order, 24 FCC Rcd 7182 (WTB 2009); Application of News Corporation and The DIRECTV Group, Inc., Transferors, and Liberty Media Corporation, Transferee, for Authority to Transfer Control, MB Docket 07-18, Protective Order, 22 FCC Rcd 12797 (MB 2007) (adopting a second protective order); Applications for Consent to the Assignment and/or Transfer of Control of Licenses, Adelphia Communications Corporation, Time Warner Cable Inc., and Comcast Corporation, MB Docket No. 05-192, Order, 20 FCC Rcd 20073 (MB 2005) (adopting a second protective order); News Corporation, General Motors Corporation, and Hughes Electronic Corporation, MB Docket No. 03-124, Order, 18 FCC Rcd 15198 (MB 2003) (adopting a second protective order).

6. We find that the competitively sensitive materials covered by this Second Protective Order are necessary to develop a more complete record on which to base the Commission's decision in this proceeding and therefore require their production. We are mindful of their highly sensitive nature, but we must also protect the right of the public to participate in this proceeding in a meaningful way. We conclude that the protections adopted in this Second Protective Order will give appropriate access to the public (including counsel for the Georgia Partners) while protecting a Submitting Party's competitively sensitive information, and will thereby serve the public interest. We stress that this Second Protective Order covers only those portions of the narrative responses, documents, or data that are responsive to the requests listed in paragraph 9 below and contain Highly Confidential Information. To the extent portions of the narrative responses, documents, or data are responsive to the requests listed in paragraph 9 but do not contain Highly Confidential Information, they are to be produced in unredacted format or under the First Protective Order, as appropriate.

7. Acknowledgment. Any party seeking access to Highly Confidential Documents subject to this Second Protective Order shall request access pursuant to the terms of the Second Protective Order and must sign the Acknowledgment of Confidentiality attached as Appendix A ("Acknowledgement").

8. Definitions. As used herein, capitalized terms not otherwise defined in this Second Protective Order shall have the following meanings:

"Stamped Highly Confidential Document" means any document, or any part thereof, that bears the legend (or which otherwise shall have had the legend recorded upon it in a way that brings its attention to a reasonable examiner) "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION – SUBJECT TO SECOND PROTECTIVE ORDER IN WT DOCKET NO. 09-119 before the Federal Communications Commission," unless the Commission determines, sua sponte or by request pursuant to Sections 0.459 or 0.461 of its rules, that any such document is not entitled to such confidential treatment. The term "Document" means any written, recorded, electronically stored, or graphic material, whether produced or created by the Submitting Party or another person. By designating a document a "Stamped Highly Confidential Document," a Submitting Party signifies and represents that it contains information that the Submitting Party believes should be subject to protection under FOIA, the Commission's implementing rules and this Second Protective Order.

"Highly Confidential Information" means information contained in Stamped Highly Confidential Documents or derived therefrom that is not otherwise available from public sources and that the Submitting Party has kept strictly confidential. Specifically, the responses requested by the Bureau's Letter of November 19, 2009 in WT Docket No. 09-119 covered by the Second Protective Order are those portions of documents or data – or entire documents, if eligible in their entirety – that disclose one or more of the categories of highly competitively sensitive information covered by this Second Protective

Order. To the extent that a Submitting Party believes that future submissions fall into one of these categories, the Submitting Party must file a letter explaining which category the information falls within, and the Submitting Party may file under this Second Protective Order only those documents specifically authorized by the Bureau.

“Outside Counsel of Record” or “Outside Counsel” means the firm(s) of attorneys, or sole practitioner(s), as the case may be, representing a party in these proceedings, provided that such persons are not involved in competitive decision-making, i.e., Outside Counsel’s activities, association, and relationship with a client do not involve advice about or participation in the business decisions of the client or of any competitor of a Submitting Party nor the analysis underlying the business decisions. Outside Counsel of Record includes any attorney representing a non-commercial party in these proceedings, provided that such a person is not involved in the competitive decision-making activities of any competitor of a Submitting Party.

“Outside Consultants” means consultants or experts retained for the purpose of assisting Counsel or a party in this proceeding, provided that the Outside Consultants are not involved in competitive decision-making, i.e., Outside Consultants’ activities, association, and relationship with a client do not involve advice about or participation in the business decisions of the client or any competitor of a Submitting Party nor the analysis underlying the business decisions. Outside Consultants include any expert employed by a non-commercial party in these proceedings, provided that such a person is not involved in the competitive decision-making activities of any competitor of a Submitting Party.

“Reviewing Party” means a person who has obtained access to Highly Confidential Information (including Stamped Highly Confidential Documents) pursuant to paragraphs 12 and 15 of this Second Protective Order.

9. Categories of Highly Confidential Information Covered by This Second Protective Order. A narrative response, document, or data (or portions thereof) may be submitted under the Second Protective Order only if it is responsive to one or the particular requests covered by this Order and it contains Highly Confidential Information as defined above. With regard to the Applicants’ requests, the Second Protective Order covers those portions of the responses, documents, and data provided in response to the Bureau’s Letter of November 19, 2009:

- that discuss in detail the Submitting Party’s future plans to compete for a customer or specific groups or types of customers, including the Submitting Party’s future procurement strategies, deployment strategies, pricing strategies, product strategies, or advertising or marketing strategies (Requests II.3.; III.1.; III.3.; III.4.a., second sentence; III.4.c.; III.8.; IV.1.d.; IV.2.c.; IV.2.e., to the extent that the response provides further information than an affirmative or negative response; IV.2.f., to the extent that the response provides granular information; IV.2.g., second sentence; IV.3.a., second and third sentences; IV.5., second sentence);
- that provide granular information about a Submitting Party’s current costs, market share, marginal revenue, and firm-specific price elasticities (Request III.2., covers only schedules that provide granular information; e.g., pricing and subscriber numbers);
- that discuss in detail the process for selling divestiture assets, only to the extent not publicly or widely available, including the identity or characteristics of specific persons with whom a company is negotiating, prices for and values of the assets, granular information regarding the assets, future plans or strategies to compete for customers, and future deployment strategies (Requests V.A.1., only the auditable financials; V.A.2., second sentence; V.A.4., second sentence; V.A.6.; V.B.; V.C.; V.D.1.; V.D.2., second sentence; V.D.3.; V.D.4., second sentence; V.D.5.-6.; V.D.7., second sentence; V.D.8.-10.; V.E.).

10. Use of Highly Confidential Information. Persons obtaining access to Highly Confidential Information (including Stamped Highly Confidential Documents) under this Second Protective Order shall use the information solely for the preparation and conduct of this license transfer proceeding before the Commission as delimited in this and subsequent paragraphs, and any judicial proceeding arising directly from this proceeding and, except as provided herein, shall not use such documents or information for any other purpose, including, without limitation, business, governmental, or commercial purposes, or in other administrative, regulatory or judicial proceedings. Should the Commission rely upon or otherwise make reference to the contents of any of the Stamped Highly Confidential Documents or Highly Confidential Information in its decision in this proceeding, it will do so by redacting any Highly Confidential Information from the public version of the decision and by making the unredacted version of the decision available only to a court and to those persons entitled to access to Highly Confidential Information under this Second Protective Order.

11. Non-Disclosure of Stamped Highly Confidential Information. Except with the prior written consent of the Submitting Party, or as hereinafter provided under this Second Protective Order, neither a Stamped Highly Confidential Document nor any Highly Confidential Information may be disclosed further.

12. Permissible Disclosure. Subject to the requirements of paragraph 15, Stamped Highly Confidential Documents may be reviewed by Outside Counsel and Outside Consultants. Outside Counsel and Outside Consultants may disclose Stamped Highly Confidential Documents and other Highly Confidential Information to: (1) paralegals or other employees of such Outside Counsel or Outside Consultants not described in clause 2 of this paragraph assisting Outside Counsel or Outside Consultants in this proceeding; (2) employees of such Outside Counsel or Outside Consultants involved solely in one or more aspects of organizing, filing, coding, converting, storing, or retrieving documents or data or designing programs for handling data connected with this proceeding, or performing other clerical or ministerial functions with regard to documents connected with this proceeding; and (3) employees of third-party contractors performing one or more of the functions set forth in clause 2 of this paragraph. Reviewing Parties may discuss and share the contents of the Stamped Highly Confidential Documents and Highly Confidential Information with any other Reviewing Party and with the Commission and its staff. A Submitting Party's Stamped Highly Confidential Documents and Highly Confidential Information may also be disclosed to employees and Counsel of the Submitting Party.

13. Protection of Stamped Highly Confidential Documents and Highly Confidential Information. Persons described in paragraph 15 shall have the obligation to ensure that access to Stamped Highly Confidential Documents and Highly Confidential Information is strictly limited as prescribed in this Second Protective Order. Such persons shall further have the obligation to ensure that Stamped Highly Confidential Documents and Highly Confidential Information are used only as provided in this Second Protective Order.

14. Copying Sensitive Documents. Any Highly Confidential Documents may be marked with the legend "Additional Copying Prohibited." A reviewing party shall receive only one copy of the document<sup>12</sup> and no further copies of such document, in any form, shall be made, subject to the provisions

<sup>12</sup> The Applicants request that "the Commission allow submitting parties to determine whether it is necessary to prohibit copying of highly confidential documents . . . since permitting even a single copy to be in the hands of a third party increases the risk of accidental disclosure." Request for Second Level Protective Order at 4-5. By this order, the Commission is affording the Applicants with a very high level of protection for their Highly Confidential Documents by limiting reviewing parties to Outside Counsel and Outside Consultants only. To impose even greater for access to information in electronic format in paragraph 16. Application for relief from this restriction against further copying may be made to the Commission, with notice to Outside Counsel of Record for the Submitting Party.

15. Procedures for Obtaining Access to Highly Confidential Documents. In all cases where access to Stamped Highly Confidential Documents and Highly Confidential Information is permitted pursuant to paragraph 12, before reviewing or having access to any Stamped Highly Confidential Documents or Highly Confidential Information, each person seeking such access shall execute the attached Acknowledgment of Confidentiality (“Acknowledgment”) and file it with the Bureau, on behalf of the Commission, and serve it upon each Submitting Party through its Outside Counsel of Record so that the Acknowledgment is received by each Submitting Party at least five business days prior to such person’s reviewing or having access to such Submitting Party’s Stamped Highly Confidential Documents or Highly Confidential Information, except that, where the person seeking access is one described in either clause 2 or 3 of paragraph 12, the Acknowledgment shall be delivered promptly prior to the person obtaining access. Each Submitting Party shall have an opportunity to object to the disclosure of Stamped Highly Confidential Documents to any such persons. Any objection must be filed at the Commission and served on Counsel representing, retaining or employing such person within three business days after receiving a copy of that person’s Acknowledgment (or where the person seeking access is one described in either clause 2 or 3 of paragraph 21, such objection shall be filed and served as promptly as practicable after receipt of the relevant Acknowledgment). Until any such objection is resolved by the Commission and, if appropriate, any court of competent jurisdiction prior to any disclosure, and unless such objection is resolved in favor of the person seeking access, persons subject to an objection from a Submitting Party shall not have access to Stamped Highly Confidential Documents or Highly Confidential Information. The Submitting Party shall make available for review the Stamped Highly Confidential Documents of such party at the offices of such party’s Outside Counsel of Record or, if the Submitting Party does not have Outside Counsel of Record, at the offices of such party’s in-house counsel; provided, however, that the Applicants shall make available for review all of their Stamped Highly Confidential Documents at the offices of one Applicant’s Outside Counsel of Record (the “Applicants’ Custodian Counsel”). Parties reviewing these documents will be provided the following alternatives: (1) parties will be provided adequate opportunity to inspect the documents on site; (2) parties may inspect the documents on site with the ability to request copies, at cost, of all or some of the documents; or (3) parties may request a complete set of the documents at cost, allowing two business days after the request is made for receipt of the copies. If a complete set of documents will be requested, parties are encouraged to make such requests at the time they submit the Acknowledgment. This will allow parties the opportunity to begin reviewing the documents at the end of the five-day period referred to above. All copies of documents that are removed from the Submitting Party’s office will be stamped as described herein and must be returned or destroyed in accordance with the terms of this Second Protective Order.

16. Highly Confidential Information in Electronic Format. If a party’s Outside Counsel or Outside Consultant has been granted access to Stamped Highly Confidential Documents and Highly Confidential Information pursuant to paragraphs 12 and 15, that Outside Counsel or Outside Consultant limits by not allowing Outside Counsel or Outside Consultants to obtain a single copy of the Highly Confidential Documents would, as the Commission noted when it adopted a model protective order, “impose[] an unnecessary burden on the review of such information.” Examination of Current Policy Concerning the Treatment of Confidential Information Submitted to the Commission, GC Docket No. 96-55, Report and Order, 13 FCC Rcd 24816, 24834 ¶ 27 (1998). The Commission specifically concluded that “a prohibition on copying might lead to a less thorough review of the confidential documents and accordingly to less useful public comment.” Id. Accordingly, we decline to grant the Applicants’ request and instead permit reviewing persons to obtain one copy of Highly Confidential Documents, but provide the Applicants with the opportunity to designate these documents as being subject to no further copying by the reviewing persons.

may request one copy of information contained, recorded, or electronically stored on a CD-ROM, DVD, flash drive, portable hard drive or similar electronic storage device. The disk or other medium containing Highly Confidential Information in electronic format shall be physically sent to the Outside Counsel or Outside Consultant; it shall not be transmitted electronically.

a. A person in receipt of Highly Confidential Information in electronic format shall load the information onto a computer solely for the purpose of analysis in connection with this proceeding and for no other purpose. The original disk or other storage medium shall be stored in a secure location and a record kept of any persons given access to the disk. Only persons who have signed the Acknowledgement to this Second Protective Order may be given access to the disk.

b. Once loaded onto a computer, the files containing Highly Confidential Information shall be password protected immediately. The password shall be given only to persons who have signed the Acknowledgement to this Order. The Highly Confidential Information may not be stored on a computer after being analyzed. After the analysis is complete, the results of such analysis may be stored by saving the results (but not the underlying Highly Confidential Information) to a mobile data storage medium. All files containing Highly Confidential Information shall be deleted from the computer as soon as practicable.

17. Requests for Additional Disclosure. If any person requests disclosure of Highly Confidential Information outside the terms of this Second Protective Order, such a request will be treated in accordance with Sections 0.442 and 0.461 of the Commission's rules.

18. Filings with the Commission. Persons described in paragraphs 12 and 15 may, in any documents that they file in this proceeding, reference Highly Confidential Information, but only if they comply with the following procedure:

a. The cover or first page of the filing, and each page of the filing that contains or discloses Confidential Information subject to this order must be clearly marked: "Highly Confidential Information – Subject to Protective Order in WT Docket No. 09-119 before the Federal Communications Commission."

b. One copy of the filing shall be filed with the Secretary's Office. The filing shall be accompanied by a cover letter stating "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER IN WT DOCKET NO. 09-119 before the Federal Communications Commission." The filing shall be made under seal, and will not be placed in the Commission's public file.

c. Those portions of the filing that constitute Highly Confidential Information shall be clearly identifiable as such, so that those portions that are deemed to be Highly Confidential Information are readily identifiable based on an examination of the filing.

d. Two redacted copies of the filing containing neither Highly Confidential Information nor Confidential Information (the "Redacted Confidential Filing") shall also be filed with the Secretary's Office. Each Redacted Confidential Filing shall have the same pagination as the Confidential Filing from which it is derived. The two copies of the Redacted Confidential Filing and their accompanying cover letter shall be stamped "REDACTED – FOR PUBLIC INSPECTION." The cover letter accompanying the Redacted Confidential Filing shall state that the Submitting Party is filing a redacted version of the filing.

e. Two copies of the filing containing Highly Confidential Information and the accompanying cover letter shall be delivered in person to Kathy Harris, Mobility Division, Wireless Telecommunications Bureau, Federal Communications Commission, 445 12th Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20554. In addition, a person making a filing containing Highly Confidential Information shall serve a copy on the relevant Submitting Party.

f. Parties should not provide courtesy copies of pleadings containing Highly Confidential Information to Commission staff unless the Bureau so requests. Any courtesy copies shall be submitted under seal.

19. Client Consultation. Nothing in this order shall prevent or otherwise restrict Outside Counsel from rendering advice to their clients relating to the conduct of this proceeding and any subsequent judicial proceeding arising therefrom and, in the course thereof, relying generally on examination of Stamped Highly Confidential Documents or Highly Confidential Information; provided, however, that in rendering such advice and otherwise communicating with such client, Counsel shall not disclose Stamped Highly Confidential Documents or Highly Confidential Information.

20. No Waiver of Confidentiality. Disclosure of Highly Confidential Information as provided herein by any person shall not be deemed a waiver by any Submitting Party of any privilege or entitlement to confidential treatment of such Highly Confidential Information. Reviewing Parties, by viewing this material agree: (1) not to assert any such waiver; (2) not to use Highly Confidential Information to seek disclosure in any other proceeding; and (3) that accidental disclosure of Highly Confidential Information by a Submitting Party shall not be deemed a waiver of any privilege or entitlement as long as the Submitting Party takes prompt remedial action.

21. Subpoena by Courts, Departments, or Agencies. If a court, or a federal or state department or agency issues a subpoena or orders production of Stamped Highly Confidential Documents or Highly Confidential Information that a party has obtained under terms of this Second Protective Order, such party shall promptly notify each Submitting Party of the pendency of such subpoena or order. Consistent with the independent authority of any court, department or agency, such notification must be accomplished such that the Submitting Party has a full opportunity to oppose such production prior to the production or disclosure of any Stamped Highly Confidential Document or Highly Confidential Information.

22. Violations of Protective Order. Should a person that has properly obtained access to Highly Confidential Information under this Second Protective Order violate any of its terms, that person shall immediately convey that fact to the Commission and to the Submitting Party. Further, should such violation consist of improper disclosure of Highly Confidential Information, the violating person shall take all necessary steps to remedy the improper disclosure. The Commission retains its full authority to fashion appropriate sanctions for violations of this Second Protective Order, including but not limited to suspension or disbarment of Counsel from practice before the Commission, forfeitures, cease and desist orders, and denial of further access to Highly Confidential Information in this or any other Commission proceeding. Nothing in this Protective Order shall limit any other rights and remedies available to the Submitting Party at law or in equity against any person using Highly Confidential Information in a manner not authorized by this Protective Order.

23. Termination of Proceeding. The provisions of this Second Protective Order shall not terminate at the conclusion of this proceeding. Within two weeks after conclusion of this proceeding and any administrative or judicial review, persons described by paragraph 12 shall destroy or return to the Submitting Party Stamped Highly Confidential Documents and all copies of the same. No material whatsoever derived from Stamped Highly Confidential Documents may be retained by any person having access thereto, except Outside Counsel (as described in paragraph 8 and 12) may retain, under the continuing strictures of this Second Protective Order, two copies of pleadings (one of which may be in electronic format) containing Highly Confidential Information prepared by them. All Outside Counsel shall make certification of compliance herewith and shall deliver the same to Outside Counsel for the Submitting Party not more than three weeks after conclusion of this proceeding and any administrative or judicial review. The provisions of this paragraph regarding retention of Stamped Highly Confidential Documents and copies of same shall not be construed to apply to the Commission or its staff.

24. Authority. This Order is issued pursuant to Sections 4(i) and 310(d) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. §§ 154(i) and 310(d), Section 4 of the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(4), and authority delegated under Section 0.331 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 0.331, and is effective upon its adoption.
