CITATION AND ORDER

Adopted: February 13, 2013

Released: February 13, 2013

By the Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division, Enforcement Bureau:

1. This is an official CITATION AND ORDER issued pursuant to Section 503(b)(5) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (Communications Act),<sup>2</sup> to W [redacted] Brown ( [redacted] . Brown or “you”) for violations of the Federal Communications Commission’s rules for the Universal Service Lifeline Program, which helps qualifying low income consumers get access to phone service.<sup>3</sup>

2. According to our records, you currently receive Lifeline-supported service on 11 customer accounts from Stand Up Wireless and US Connect. As you should know, your household can have only one Lifeline-supported phone service.<sup>4</sup> When you signed up for Lifeline-supported phone service, you should have signed a form where you certified, under penalty of perjury, that you and other members of your household do not already have Lifeline-supported phone service.<sup>5</sup> You also should have certified that you were eligible for Lifeline service, and that all of the information in your application was truthful.<sup>6</sup>

3. By obtaining Lifeline service from multiple providers, you violated the rule limiting each household to only one Lifeline-supported phone service, and you apparently made multiple false certifications that are punishable by law. Therefore, we ORDER you to cease and desist from applying for—or receiving—more than one Lifeline-supported phone service.

<sup>1</sup> The name of the recipient of this Citation and Order has been redacted in part to protect the recipient’s personal privacy interests. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(a); see also 47 C.F.R. § 0.455(g) (“To the extent required to prevent a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy . . . the Commission may delete identifying details or confidential information when it makes available or publishes any document described in this section.”). We take this action because, in this case, the individual’s identity has no bearing or effect on the subject matter of the document, and there is no need for the general public to know it. Therefore, at this juncture, the interest in protecting the private citizen’s right to be secure in his or her personal affairs outweighs any purported interest the public might have in knowing the individual’s identifying information.

4. In addition, you should have received a letter from the Universal Service Administrative Company dated October 10, 2012 directing you to choose a single Lifeline service provider and explaining that you would no longer receive benefits for more than one Lifeline-supported phone service.

5. If you continue to violate the Communications Act or the Commission's rules in any manner described in this letter after you receive this Citation and Order, the Federal Communications Commission may impose monetary fines of up to $16,000 for each violation and up to $112,500 for a single continuing violation.<sup>7</sup>

6. You may respond to this Citation and Order within 30 days from the date of this letter by requesting an interview or by submitting a written response explaining your position. If you want to schedule an interview, please contact Mindy Littell at (202) 418-1420. The interview can be conducted in person at the FCC Field Office that is closest to your residence or by telephone with an FCC representative in Washington, D.C. If you prefer to send a written response, you must send it within 30 days of the date of this letter to:
