NOTICE OF APPARENT LIABILITY FOR FORFEITURE

Adopted: June 10, 2015

Released: June 10, 2015

By the Chief, Video Division, Media Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION:

1. In this Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture (“NAL”) issued pursuant to Section 503(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the “Act”), and Section 1.80 of the Commission’s Rules (the “Rules”),¹ we find that Alpha & Omega Communications, LLC (the “Licensee”), licensee of Station KCLP-CA, Boise, Idaho (“KCLP” or “Station”), willfully and/or repeatedly violated Section 73.3539(a) of the Rules by failing to timely file with the Commission its Application for Renewal of Broadcast Station License (Form 303-S).² Based upon our review of the facts and circumstances before us, we conclude that the Licensee is apparently liable for a monetary forfeiture in the amount of Twenty-Four Hundred Dollars ($2,400).

II. BACKGROUND:

2. Section 73.3539(a) of the Rules requires a broadcast television license renewal application to be filed “not later than the first day of the fourth full calendar month prior to the expiration date of the license sought to be renewed....”³ The Station’s license was scheduled to expire on October 1, 2014. In accordance with Section 73.3539(a) of the Rules, the Licensee was required to file its Form 303-S to renew the license of KCLP on or before June 2, 2014.⁴ The Licensee did not file its Form 303-S until August 5, 2014.⁵

III. DISCUSSION

3. Proposed Forfeiture. This NAL is issued pursuant to Section 503(b)(1)(B) of the Act. Under that provision, any person who is determined by the Commission to have “willfully or repeatedly failed to comply with any provision of the Act or any rule, regulation, or order issued by the

Commission...shall be liable to the United States for a forfeiture penalty.”⁶ Section 312(f)(1) of the Act defines willful as “the conscious and deliberate commission or omission of [any] act, irrespective of any intent to violate” the law.⁷ Furthermore, the Commission has held that any inadvertent errors, oversights or failures to become familiar with Commission requirements are willful violations.⁸ The legislative history to Section 312(f)(1) of the Act clarifies that this definition of willful applies to both Sections 312 and 503(b) of the Act,⁹ and the Commission has so interpreted the term in the Section 503(b) context.¹⁰ The Commission may also assess a forfeiture for violations that are merely repeated, and not willful. Section 312(f)(2) of the Act also provides that “[t]he term ‘repeated,’ when used with reference to the commission or omission of any act, means the commission or omission of such act more than once or, if such commission or omission is continuous, for more than one day.”¹¹

4. In violation of Section 73.3539(a) of the Rules, the Licensee failed to file a timely application for renewal of its broadcast license for KCLP. A Form 303-S for KCLP was not filed with the Commission until August 5, 2014—two months and three days after the filing deadline. While the application was filed prior to the expiration date listed on the Station’s license, this late filing constitutes an apparent willful and/or repeated violation of Section 73.3539(a) of the Rules.

5. The Commission’s Forfeiture Policy Statement and the notes to Section 1.80(b)(8) of the Rules establish a base forfeiture amount of $3,000 for failure to file a required form or information.¹² In determining the appropriate forfeiture amount, we may adjust the base amount upward or downward by considering the factors enumerated in Section 503(b)(2)(E) of the Act and Section 1.80 of the Rules, including “the nature, circumstances, extent, and gravity of the violation and, with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, any history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and such other matters as justice may require.”¹³

6. We note that although in some instances the Video Division has decided to issue admonishments instead of forfeitures due to a late filed license renewal application, in this case we believe a forfeiture is appropriate due to the lengthy delay in filing the application.¹⁴ Although the license renewal application was filed prior to the expiration date listed on the station's license, here the filing was over two months late which resulted in significant delay in consideration of the licensee's application for both the public and the Commission. The Commission has found in such situations that forfeiture is appropriate.¹⁵

7. Upon review of the facts, circumstances, and nature of the violation, we find that a forfeiture in the amount of $2,400 is appropriate for the Licensee's failure to timely file its license renewal application, in apparent willful and/or repeated violation of Section 73.3539(a) of the Rules.¹⁶

IV. ORDERING CLAUSES

8. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED, pursuant to Section 503(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and Section 1.80 of the Commission's Rules, that Alpha & Omega Communications, LLC, is hereby NOTIFIED of its APPARENT LIABILITY FOR FORFEITURE in the amount of Twenty-Four Hundred Dollars ($2,400) for its apparent willful and/or repeated violation of Section 73.3539(a) of the Commission's Rules.

9. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, pursuant to Section 1.80 of the Commission's Rules, that within thirty (30) days of the release date of this NAL, Alpha & Omega Communications, LLC, SHALL PAY the full amount of the proposed forfeiture or SHALL FILE a written statement seeking reduction or cancellation of the proposed forfeiture.

Memorandum Opinion and Order, 29 FCC Rcd 9781 (2014) aff'd Forfeiture Order, 28 FCC Rcd 16398 (Vid. Div. 2013) ("WDKA Acquisition") (finding that a licensee's late filing of one month and three days warranted a forfeiture because the impact of such a late filing was "materially worse" than in cases where the Commission has only admonished stations for failing to file a timely license renewal application).

¹⁵ The Commission has found that the staggered license renewal process set forth by Section 73.1020 of the rules, 47 C.F.R. § 73.1020, helps to "solicit public input, as well as evaluate and grant applications in an organized, timely, and administratively efficient manner." WDKA Acquisition, 29 FCC Rcd at 9782, ¶ 3. Late license renewal filings that cause the petition to deny period to be extended beyond the expiration date listed on a station's license "may disrupt, to a greater extent, Commission processes established for review of license renewal applications and public participation in the license renewal process." Id.
