

Modulating Signal Description Exhibit

The modulating signal for both experimental radio units is 2-FSK, sending data at 153,600 bits per second, with the Frequency for data zero and Frequency for data one off center frequency by 76 kHz. This offset is being applied to both the 400 MHz and 2.4 GHz center frequency requests.