

With this application, T-Mobile requests a 6-month extension of its existing STA. No issues have been reported with the ongoing operations, and no changes to those operations are proposed in this application.