Tel : +81-566-55-5772

- (1) Identification of the specific information for which confidential treatment is sought;
All material contained in the application for Experimental Radio Station Authorization
- (2) Identification of the Commission proceeding in which the information was submitted or a description of the circumstances giving rise to the submission;
Office of Engineering and Technology, Federal Communications Commission
- (3) Explanation of the degree to which the information is commercial or financial, or contains a trade secret or is privileged;
The material contains DENSO CORPORATION's trade secrets and confidential information that DENSO CORPORATION does not customarily release to the public.
- (4) Explanation of the degree to which the information concerns a service that is subject to competition;
The public disclosure of material might be harmful to DENSO CORPORATION and would give competitor an unfair advantage in the market.
- (5) Explanation of how disclosure of the information could result in substantial competitive harm;
The public disclosure of material might be harmful to DENSO CORPORATION and would let competitor introduce equipment, which is more advanced than ours, in the market.
- (6) Identification of any measures taken by the submitting party to prevent unauthorized disclosure;
DENSO CORPORATION will not disclose any information until the sales of equipment starts.
- (7) Identification of whether the information is available to the public and the extent of any previous disclosure of the information to third parties;
DENSO CORPORATION does not disclose any information yet.
- (8) Justification of the period during which the submitting party asserts that material should not be available for public disclosure;
DENSO CORPORATION does not have clear prospects on placing the equipment in the market yet.
- (9) Any other information that the party seeking confidential treatment believes may be useful in assessing whether its request for confidentiality should be granted.
