

MWH Airport Project.

Hello,

Boeing has sensors/software on aircraft that will be used to detect ground vehicles at airports. They will use the VMAT data to test/validate the data that the airplane sensors and software is seeing. These VMATs are already operating at most major airports for additional safety and visibility of vehicles at the airport. I'm requesting this experimental license because of the additional transmission outside the movement area at Grant County Airport (MWH)