

STA Extension Exhibit

Jacobs Technology, Inc. requests a short – 60-day – extension of time to complete its indoor testing pursuant to the terms of the existing STA. Because this short extension request will continue to use the existing parameters – and thus create no new interference concerns -- and will greatly facilitate the experimental testing initially proposed, the proposed extension is consistent with the public interest and is respectfully requested to be granted as soon as possible.