Travis:

You requested that I contact the IQ radio service license holders to make sure they had no issues with the experimental license in their territory. We have worked out a strategy for avoiding conflicts between any of the parties involved. They are satisfied.

Here are excerpts from emails from each of the two license holder's representatives:

State of Michigan, call sign WQXH871, contact Jason Bodell:

Hey Walt,

Absolutely! The Michigan Department of Transportation does not have any objections or concerns in regards to this.

Thanks,
