

EXHIBIT D – FAA NOTIFICATION

Pursuant to 47. C.F.R. §17.7 (e), FAA notification is not necessary because the involved 21.0 meter antenna is located in a congested town and shielded by existing permanent structures and topographic features of a substantial nature that ensure the structure does not adversely affect safety in air navigation.