Effective November 15, 2007, the BellSouth Transport Advantage Plan (TAP) will no longer be available for new customer subscriptions. (N)
Customers with an existing TAP may keep the TAP under the terms and conditions specified herein until the term of the TAP expires. (N)

- (1) The BellSouth Transport Advantage Plan is a volume and term plan that allows customers to receive rewards in the form of credits applied to their bill in exchange for having maintained a specified level of Special Access and Switched Access dedicated transport services recurring billing for a specified period of time. To qualify for the BellSouth TAP, a customer must have $3M or greater of annual recurring revenue associated with Qualifying Access Services. Qualifying Access Services are described in 2.4.8(H)(7) following. The credits provided under this plan will be applied to Eligible Access Services recurring billing. Eligible Access Services are as defined in 2.4.8(H)(6) following. (T)
- (2) Customers that qualify for BellSouth TAP may subscribe to a single term only. The term of a BellSouth TAP is three (3) years. The BellSouth TAP effective service date will be negotiated by the Telephone Company and the customer.

Customers that subscribe to the BellSouth TSP that desire to establish a BellSouth TAP must terminate their BellSouth TSP as of the effective date of their subscription to BellSouth TAP. Such termination of a customer's BellSouth TSP shall be without termination liability. All BellSouth TSP shortfall charges billed at the time of subscription to BellSouth TAP must be satisfied prior to the effective date of the BellSouth TAP.
