ACCESS SERVICE

7. Special Access Service (Cont'd)
 \7.2 Service Description (Cont'd)
 7.2.20 Verizon Optical Networking#
 (A) General

- (1) Verizon Optical Networking service provides managed optical transport of data signals of various speeds over the Telephone Company's shared network. Verizon Optical Networking architecture allows for point-to-point transmissions of varying bandwidths between customer designated premises or between a customer designated location and a collocation arrangement where a customer is provided Expanded Interconnection as described in Section 28 following.
- (2) Verizon Optical Networking is provided where Telephone Company fiber optic facilities and equipment with sufficient bandwidth capacity permit.

(D)

Effective March 30, 2007, orders for new Verizon Optical Networking are no longer permitted. The Telephone Company will continue to provide Verizon Optical Networking pursuant to this Section 7.2.16 on any existing Verizon Optical Networking that is in-service as of March 30, 2007, or any order for Verizon Optical Networking that is placed with the Telephone Company prior to March 29, 2007 (collectively, Existing Verizon Optical Networking), subject to the following conditions:

- a. For any Existing Verizon Optical Networking that is currently subscribed to a contract under the FCC's Universal Service Fund Program for Schools and Libraries (also known as E-Rate), the Telephone Company will continue to provide Existing Verizon Optical Networking until the expiration date of the customer's current commitment period or renewal commitment period(s), as applicable, or until the customer replaces the Existing Verizon Optical Networking with a comparable Telephone Company provided service, or discontinues service, whichever occurs first. Orders involving moves, additions and/or changes to Existing Verizon Optical Networking are not permitted. (C)
- b. For any Existing Verizon Optical Networking that is currently subscribed to a term plan (i.e., commitment periods of 1-, 3-, 5-, and 7-years), the Telephone Company will continue to provide the Existing Verizon Optical Networking for an additional six (6) months beyond the expiration date of the customer's current commitment period, or until the customer replaces the Existing Verizon Optical Networking with a comparable Telephone Company provided service, or discontinues service, whichever comes first. Effective March 30, 2007, moves, additions and/or changes are not permitted. (C)
(T)
- c. For any Existing Verizon Optical Networking whose term plan expired prior to March 30, 2007, but the Existing Verizon Optical Networking continued on a month-to-month basis at prevailing rates, the Telephone Company will continue to provide the Existing Verizon Optical Networking until September 30, 2007, or until the customer replaces the Existing Verizon Optical Networking with a comparable Telephone Company provided service, or discontinues service, whichever comes first. Effective March 30, 2007, moves, additions and/or changes are not permitted. (T)

ACCESS SERVICE

26. SONET Services (Cont'd)26.1 Service Descriptions (Cont'd)26.1.5 IntelliLight® Broadband Transport (IBT)#(A) General

IntelliLight® Broadband Transport (IBT) provides high speed, synchronous optical fiber-based, full duplex data transmission capabilities. IBT is provisioned over the Telephone Company's shared SONET network and provides customers with SONET based broadband access transport with the following capabilities.

OC3, OC3c or STM-1	Transmission services operating at the terminating bit rate of 155.52 Mbps
OC12, OC12c	Transmission services operating at the terminating bit rate of 622.08 Mbps
OC48, OC48c	Transmission services operating at the terminating bit rate of 2.488 Gbps
OC192, OC192c	Transmission services operating at the terminating bit rate of 9.953 Gbps

The following footnote is not applicable to the Office Channel Termination, Virtual Office Channel Termination, DS1 Port, DS3/STS1 Port or Node Mapping Rearrangement Charge rate elements of IBT. Effective March 30, 2007, orders for new IBT are no longer permitted. The Telephone Company will continue to provide IBT pursuant to this Section 26.1.5 on any existing IBT that is in-service as of March 29, 2007, or any order for IBT that is placed with the Telephone Company prior to March 30, 2007 (collectively, Existing IBT), subject to the following conditions:

- a. For any Existing IBT that is currently subscribed to a contract under the FCC's Universal Service Fund Program for Schools and Libraries (also known as E-Rate), the Telephone Company will continue to provide Existing IBT until the expiration date of the customer's current commitment period or renewal commitment period(s), as applicable, or until the customer replaces the Existing IBT with a comparable Telephone Company provided service, or discontinues service, whichever occurs first. Subject to availability of facilities and equipment, certain changes to the Existing IBT are permitted provided that such changes do not require a new commitment period or an extension to an existing commitment period. (C)
- b. For any Existing IBT that is currently subscribed to a term plan (i.e., commitment periods of 3- and 5-years), the Telephone Company will continue to provide the Existing IBT for an additional six (6) months beyond the expiration date of the customer's current commitment period, or until the customer replaces the Existing IBT with a comparable Telephone Company provided service, or discontinues service, whichever comes first. Subject to availability of facilities and equipment, certain changes to the Existing IBT are permitted provided that such changes do not require a new commitment period or an extension to an existing commitment period. (C)
- c. For any Existing IBT provided on a month-to-month basis, the Telephone Company will continue to provide the Existing IBT until September 30, 2007, or until the customer replaces the Existing IBT with a comparable Telephone Company provided service, or discontinues service, whichever comes first. Changes are not permitted. (T)
