SECTION 5 – MISCELLANEOUS CHARGES

5.4 International Mobile Termination Charge

The International Mobile Termination Charge is an additive per minute charge and applies in addition to the usage rate for the call. The charge applies to International calls originating in the United States and terminating to a wireless device at one of the International mobile termination locations listed in the table below. Wireless devices include but are not limited to cellular phone, pager, personal computer, and personal digital assistant or where the call terminates to a portable telephone number where a forwarding, tracking or other type of location service was used. The additive per minute charge applies to (1) International Direct-Dialed outbound calls; (2) fully automated, operator assisted, and operator dialed calling card calls billed to the Calling Card or a LEC card; and (3) operator assisted and operator dialed calls billed to other than a calling card.

SECTION 5 – MISCELLANEOUS CHARGES

5.5 Carrier Cost Recovery Fee

Consumer Customers will be charged a $1.99 per month. The CCRF is charged to recover certain costs associated with providing state-to-state and international long distance service including expenses for national regulatory fees and programs, and connection and account servicing charges. This fee applies for each month in which the customer has any AT&T Long Distance state-to-state and/or international charges on their bill. This fee is not a tax or charge required by the government.
