A Federal Universal Service charge will be assessed to end user customer at the billing account level. The charge will be determined monthly by multiplying the current quarterly Universal Service Fund (USF) contribution factor as released by the Federal Communications Commission, by the end user customer's monthly billing for interstate calls, international calls and subscriber line charge for network access. Additionally the Company may change the application of this service charge in accordance with any future rulings from the Federal Communications Commission.

(M)
↓9.3.6 Secondary Service Order Charge

The Secondary Service Order Charge (also known as the Carrier Service Order Charge) applies per customer request for the receiving, recording, and processing of customer request to change services or add new or additional services. The Secondary Service order charge will also apply when a carrier submits a Local Service Request (LSR) to switch a customer's local service from the Company to the requesting carrier. This charge applies when LSR rates have not been established pursuant to an interconnection agreement between the Company and the requesting carrier.
