ACCESS SERVICE

7. Special Access Service (Cont'd)7.2 Description of Special Access (Cont'd)7.2.17 Optical Wavelength Service (OWS)

Optical Wavelength Service (OWS) is a high speed data transport service that provides point-to-point transmissions of data communications that customers deliver to the Telephone Company utilizing shared Dense Wave Division Multiplexing (DWDM) technology available at speeds of: 1 Gbps, 2.5 Gbps, 10 Gbps, 40 Gbps and 100 Gbps.

OWS is provided on a month-to-month basis or for periods of one, three or five years. When a customer orders OWS, the customer and the Telephone Company will work cooperatively to plan, engineer, provision and manage the OWS circuits. OWS is only available where facilities and operating conditions exist.

.There are two basic rate categories which apply to Special Access Service:

- Channel Terminations
- Channel Mileage

(A) OWS Channel Termination

OWS channel terminations may be used to connect the following:

- a customer designated premises to the serving wire center of that premise.

The OWS channel termination rate element may vary based on distance. The mileage used to determine the monthly rate for channel terminations located outside a Telephone Company Central Office is the airline distance between the customer's designated premises and the Telephone Company serving wire center. The mileage measurement is determined by utilizing exchange maps and mileage tables located in designated Telephone Company offices for such purposes

OWS channel terminations provided to a customer's designated premises will be installed in a single, common space under Telephone Company control. One Channel Termination charge applies per customer designated premises at which the channel is terminated. This charge will apply even if the customer designated premises and the serving wire center are collocated in a Telephone Company building. An OWS channel termination may not be split between premises or terminated in multiple locations within a premise. The customer must provide suitable floor space, environmental controls and non-switched AC power to support the OWS channel termination at the customer's premises location. The Channel Termination is the interface located at the Central Office that allows OWS to connect to the following Company services: SONET, ET, or EVPL.

(B) Nonrecurring Charges

Nonrecurring charges are one-time charges that apply for specific work activity (i.e., installation or change to an existing service). The types of nonrecurring charges that apply for Special Access Service are: installation of service and service rearrangements. These charges are in addition to the Access Order Charge as specified in 5.2.2 and 23.4.1.

Nonrecurring charges apply to each service installed. The nonrecurring charges for the installation of service are set for each channel type as a nonrecurring charge for the Channel Termination.

(2) Service Rearrangements

Service rearrangements are changes to existing (installed) services which may be administrative only in nature, as set forth following, or that involve actual physical change to the service. .

Changes to pending orders are set forth in 5.4 preceding.

Changes in the physical location of the point of termination or customer designated premises are moves as set forth following.

Changes in the type of Service or Channel Termination which result in a change of the minimum period requirement will be treated as a discontinuance of the service and an installation of a new service.

Changes in ownership or transfer of responsibility from one customer to another will be treated as a discontinuance of the service and an installation of a new service. In the event the change in ownership or transfer of responsibility is as set forth in 2.1.2(A) preceding where there is no change in facilities or arrangements, the change will be treated as an administrative change.

ACCESS SERVICE

7. Special Access Service (Cont'd)7.4 Rate Regulations (Cont'd)7.4.21 Optical Wavelength Service (OWS) (Cont'd)Pricing Plans

OWS service is available on a month-to-month basis or for a period of one, three or five years. All OWS arrangements will begin in month one. If the customer requests that the service be disconnected prior to completion of the minimum service period of 12 months, termination liability charges equal to 100% of the total monthly recurring charges for the remaining months of the minimum service period plus 70% of the total monthly recurring charges for the remaining months of the term. Any termination after the minimum service period of 12 months termination liability charges equal to 70% of the remaining months of the term will apply. For example, a customer disconnecting in the 12th month of a 3 year plan will be charged 70% of the remaining 24 months of billing. The Federal Government and its authorized agents are exempt from the 50% termination liability penalty charge if service is discontinued prior to the expiration of the one, three or five year minimum commitment period.

Additionally, customers may disconnect OWS service, without penalty, should the total monthly recurring rates associated with OWS service increase by 10% or more at any one time. The customer must notify the Telephone Company in writing within 90 days after the effective date of the rate increase if they elect to discontinue service. Rate decreases will automatically be applied to the monthly recurring rates for the remainder of the service

If the customer does not specify renewal terms in writing 90 days prior to the expiration of the one, three or five year period, the commitment period and OWS service rates in effect at the time of expiration will automatically renew. Alternatively, 90 days prior to the expiration of the one, three or five year period the customer may specify in writing their intent to continue use of the services under month-to-month rates. The customer can terminate OWS service at the end of the minimum commitment period with no penalty or obligation to continue the service. Further, if the customer notifies the Telephone Company in writing 90 days prior to the expiration date of their minimum commitment period with their intent to not renew their OWS service, the customer will have six (6) months after the expiration date to submit their disconnect order(s). If the customer fails to submit their disconnect order(s), by the end of the six (6) month period, the commitment period in effect at the time of the original expiration period will automatically renew at the current service guide rates. If the customer submits their disconnect orders(s) after the six (6) month period, termination liability charges will apply. Termination liability charges will be calculated at 50% of the monthly recurring charges for the remaining months of the commitment period up to a maximum of twelve (12) months. Time from the expiration of the original commitment period until the disconnect order(s) are received will apply for calculation of the termination liability charges.

7.4 Rate Regulations (Cont'd)7.4.21 Optical Wavelength Service (OWS) (Cont'd)Upgrades

Customers may upgrade OWS without incurring termination liability charges under the following circumstances:

- (1) The order for the disconnect of the existing OWS and the order for the upgraded OWS must be received at the same time.
- (2) The new OWS is provided between the same customer and central office locations as the discontinued service.
- (3) The service period of the new OWS is equal to or greater than the service period of the existing OWS service.

Termination Liability – Downgrades

If the customer chooses to decrease the existing speed or capacity to a lower bandwidth than what was on the previous order prior to the expiration date of the fixed period service rate plan, termination liability will apply. However, if the customer commits to a new term discount plan and if the total monthly recurring revenue of the new service is equal to or greater than 115% of the remaining value of the existing term plan, no termination liability will apply.

The customer must note on the order that the speed or capacity is being downgraded.

The new service due date must be within 30 days of the due date of the disconnection of the old service, unless the installation is delayed due to Company reasons.

New minimum service period applies to the new service,

The customer agrees to pay all outstanding recurring and nonrecurring charges (these charges will not be included in the new service pricing plan); and

Applicable nonrecurring charges apply and are the charges in effect at the time the service is changed
