CONSUMER TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICESECTION 1 - GENERAL TARIFF INFORMATION

1.1. GENERAL - The section contains general information relevant to this tariff.

1.1.1. How to Use This Tariff - The following information is provided to assist tariff users in understanding and maintaining copies of this tariff.

A. Tariff Structure - This tariff is structured in a manner which separates regulations from rates. The regulations applicable to the services offered in this tariff are placed in sections in the forward part of the tariff; while the rates for those offerings are placed in a single rate section in the rear of the tariff, Section 8. References are provided in the service sections of the tariff to assist the tariff user in the location of rates. Similarly, the rate section contains a list of services with applicable rate section numbers.

To locate the section for a particular service, refer to the Master Table of Contents, Page 2. If a more detailed listing of the material contained in that section is required, refer to the Table of Contents which starts on Page 3.

B. Tariff Format

1. Page Numbering - Page numbers appear in the upper-right corner of the page. Pages are numbered sequentially within each section. When a new page is added between existing pages with whole numbers, a decimal is added. For example, a new page in Section 1 added between pages 1-6 and 1-7 would be 1-6.1

2. Page Revision Numbers - Revision numbers also appear in the upper-right corner of the page. These numbers are used to determine the most current page version on file with the FCC. For example, the 4th revised page 3-4 cancels the 3rd revised page 3-4. Because of deferrals, notice periods, etc., the most current page revision number on file with the FCC is not always the tariff page in effect. Consult check sheets and supplements for the page currently in effect.

3. Section Numbering Sequence - There are nine levels of alpha-numeric coding used in this tariff. Each level is subservient to its next higher level. The following is an example of the numbering sequence used.

C. Check Sheets - When a tariff filing is made with the FCC, an updated check sheet accompanies the tariff filing.

The check sheet lists the pages contained in the tariff, with a cross reference to the current revision number on file with the FCC. When new pages are added, the check sheet is changed to reflect the revision. All revised pages in a given filing are designated by an asterisk (*) on the check sheet. A supplement put into effect is also reflected on the check sheet.

The tariff user should refer to the latest check sheet to determine if a particular page is the most current page on file with the FCC.

D. Supplements - A supplement can be used to list a group of tariff pages that are being deferred, suspended or advanced. A supplement contains a brief explanation of the circumstances and a list of the pages involved. It also informs the user of the disposition of these pages. The supplements in effect are listed on the check sheet of the tariff. When a supplement is no longer in effect, it is deleted from the subsequent check sheet. A supplement can also be used to cancel a complete tariff.

E. Abbreviations and Definitions - This section of the tariff contains a list of the abbreviations used (see Explanation of Abbreviations, Section 1.1.4., following). In addition, the General Regulations section contains a Definitions subsection which defines terms which have a specific meaning within the context of this tariff (see Definitions, Section 3.10.).

3.5.10. Tax-Related Surcharges - Certain state and local jurisdictions assess AT&T gross receipts taxes and other state and local taxes and fees based on AT&T's federal receipts or assets. Examples of categories of these taxes and fees include franchise fees, privilege, license, occupational, excise, property or other similar taxes, and utility or telecommunications assessments. Certain taxes and fees are also assessed upon local telephone companies and passed on to AT&T through or with the local telephone company's federal access charges.

These Surcharges are charges applied to AT&T customer bills to recover 1) AT&T's payments of taxes and fees to certain state and local jurisdictions, and 2) AT&T's payments to local telephone companies, which have passed on certain taxes and fees to AT&T. (There are also taxes and charges that AT&T assesses directly to customers in the amounts that federal, state, and local authorities require AT&T to bill customers. These charges are defined by federal, state, and local authorities and are not addressed in this tariff.)

To recover AT&T's expense for these taxes and fees from residential customers, AT&T imposes surcharges on each bill, referred to as "Tax-Related Surcharges" in the table below*, which are applied to a customer's total billed state-to-state and international charges.

3.5.11. Other Miscellaneous Rates And Charges - The following rates and charges apply to recover amounts AT&T is required by governmental authorities to, either directly or indirectly, collect from or pay to others in support of statutory or regulatory programs, plus associated administrative costs.

A. Universal Connectivity Charge - a Universal Connectivity Charge applies monthly per billed telephone number account. The AT&T Universal Connectivity Charge is a monthly percentage charge to Customers designed to recover amounts AT&T will be expected to pay into a federal program called the Universal Service Fund (USF). The USF percentage is set each quarter by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC).

The USF helps provide affordable telecommunications services for low-income customers and customers in rural areas. It also provides discounts on Internet access for eligible schools, libraries and rural health care providers. The Universal Connectivity Charge applied to customer bills is the percentage prescribed by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) for the USF (also known as the "Contribution Factor").

AT&T may, at its option, mark up the charge of a particular call to account for the Universal Connectivity Charge in lieu of having the Universal Connectivity Charge assessed as a separate line item on the bill.

AT&T may, at its option, include the applicable Universal Connectivity Charge associated with a particular charge on the same line item as that charge rather than being included in the Universal Connectivity Charge total shown on a separate line item.

B. State Universal Service Fund Charge - When universal service fund assessments or fees, based upon interstate receipts are imposed by certain jurisdictions upon the Company, the amounts of such assessments or fees will be billed to Customers in those jurisdictions on a prorated basis. The amount of the charge that is prorated to each Customer's bill is determined by the interstate telecommunications services provided to and billed to a Customer service location in the assessing jurisdiction as described below. Application of the State Universal Service Fund Charge is subject to billing availability. The assessing jurisdictions and the descriptions of the charge are listed below:

Jurisdiction	Description of Charge
South Carolina	A surcharge equal to the revenue percentage established by the Administrator of the South Carolina Universal Service Fund will be applied to your total monthly net intrastate and interstate retail charges for telecommunications services that are provided in the state of South Carolina, after all eligible discounts and credits have been applied.
Vermont	A surcharge equal to the revenue percentage established by the Public Service Board of Vermont will be applied to your total monthly net intrastate, interstate and international retail charges for telecommunications services that are provided in the state of Vermont, after all eligible discounts and credits have been applied.

3.5.12. Credit Limits - Where the Company provides the billing function for CTS, the Company may establish credit limits for new and existing Customers based on credit scores assigned by commercial credit reporting agencies or based on the Customer's payment history. Where a credit limit is established for a Customer, the Customer will be notified of his/her initial credit limit amount and any subsequent credit limit changes. Customers will be notified at least 5 days in advance of any credit limits that are placed in effect. In the event that the established credit limit is exceeded on the Customer's billing account, access to AT&T's Telecommunications Toll Services including 1+, 0+ and all 900/976/calls will be restricted where facilities are available. Access to local calling, operator assisted calls, emergency services (9-1-1), 800, 866, 877, 888 will not be affected by this restriction. Customers attempting to access restricted services will be automatically routed to either a recorded announcement or a service representative for information regarding service restoral.

In the event the Customer has become delinquent in his/her payments, AT&T may place a restriction on continued use of AT&T Telecommunications Toll Services including 1+, 0+ and all 900/976 calls until the Customer is able to make arrangements satisfactory to the Company. A new credit limit may be set which is lower than the Customer's initial credit limit due to his/her delinquent status. Access to local calling, operator assisted calls, emergency services (9-1-1), 800, 866, 877, 888 will not be affected by this restriction. In the event that access is restricted due to payment delinquencies, Customers attempting to access restricted services will be automatically routed to either a recorded announcement or a service representative for information regarding service restoral.

3.5.13. Casual Usage - AT&T may limit a residential consumer's toll usage in order to protect the Company from potential non-payment by non-subscribers utilizing AT&T's network. In the event access is restricted, Customers attempting to access AT&T's network will be automatically routed to either a recorded announcement or a service representative for information regarding service restoral.

3.5.14. Return Check Charge - An administrative charge of $25.00 is applied to the Customer's bill for each occasion that a check, bank draft or electronic funds transfer is returned for the reason of insufficient funds or no account. If a rate other than $25.00 has been established by the appropriate legal authority in the state where CTS is provided to the Customer, then such rate applies. When a local exchange company provides the billing function on behalf of the Company, the local exchange company's local exchange service return check charge applies.

3.5.15. Credit Establishment - The Company may conduct a credit investigation of each residential service Customer or applicant prior to accepting the service order, customer deposit or advance payment.

3.5.16. Right to Refuse Service - The Company may refuse service to a Customer or applicant whose service has been discontinued for non-payment of charges. The Customer or applicant will be required to pay all bills due the Company for services furnished or make other arrangements satisfactory to the Company to re-establish credit before service is restored or any service started.

If service is established and it is subsequently determined that the Customer or applicant is indebted to the Company for service previously furnished, the Company may suspend or terminate such service until satisfactory arrangements have been made for the payment of the prior indebtedness.

3.5.17. Advance Payment - The Company may require a Customer or applicant who cannot establish credit satisfactory to the Company to make an advance payment as a condition of continued or new service. The Company reserves the right to require from an applicant for new or continued service, advance payments of estimated usage charges, as well as other charges as may be deemed necessary by the Company for safeguarding its interests.

3.5.18. Collection Fees - In the event the Company incurs fees or expenses, including attorney's fees, in collecting or attempting to collect any charges owed to the Company, the Customer will be liable to the Company for the payment of all such fees and expenses reasonably incurred.

3.5.19. Restoral of Disconnected Service - If service has been suspended or discontinued for nonpayment, service will be reestablished upon receipt of all charges due, which includes charges for services and facilities during the period of suspension and which may include a service restoral fee. If the Customer has a history of payments returned for insufficient funds, the Company may require payment by cash, money order or certified check. If such payment is made by personal check, restoral of service will be effected upon bank clearance of the check.

3.5. PAYMENTS AND CHARGES (continued)

3.5.20. Convenience Fee For Payment Made With A Company Representative -
A $5.00 fee will apply for each instance of payment of outstanding charges when authorized by the Customer by telephone (whether such telephone call was originated by the Customer or by the Company) and when the method of payment would allow the payment to be immediately credited to the Customer's account, such as payment via a credit card, an electronic check (eCheck), or any other discretionary type payment that may be accepted by the Company through such telephone contacts. This fee will not apply for payments made directly by customers to authorized Company payment locations, payments mailed in, automatic funds transfers, payments through the Company Internet website and other conventional methods of payments. CONSUMER TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICESECTION 3 - GENERAL REGULATIONS*3.6. CREDIT ALLOWANCES FOR INTERRUPTIONS

3.6.1. General - A credit allowance is applicable to that portion of a call which is interrupted due to poor transmission (e.g., noisy circuit condition), one-way transmission (one party is unable to hear the other), or involuntary disconnection (cut-off) of the call caused by components of CTS. A Customer may also be granted credit for reaching a wrong number. To receive the proper credit, the Customer must notify the Company operator or Company office and furnish the called number, the trouble experienced (e.g., cut-off, noisy circuit, reached wrong number, etc.), the class of call, and the approximate time the call was placed. At the Customer's option, when the Company operator is notified, the operator will attempt to re-establish the call. CTS charges will apply to the re-established call.

All Customer requests for Credit Allowances are subject to limits and verification by AT&T.

A. Interruptions to Established Calls - When a call to be billed under this tariff is interrupted due to cut-off, one-way transmission, or poor transmission conditions the Customer will receive credit equivalent to the period in which the call was interrupted, i.e., the initial or additional period.

B. Wrong Numbers - When a wrong number is reached, a credit equivalent to the initial period of the call will be granted if the Customer reports the situation promptly to the Company operator or a Company office.

C. When Credit Allowances Do Not Apply - Credit allowances for a CTS call do not apply for:

- Interruptions not reported to the Company,
- Interruptions that are due to the failure of power, equipment or systems not provided by the Company, or
- Interruptions caused by the failure of other services provided by this Company which are connected to CTS.

3.6.2. Use of Another Means of Communication - If the Customer elects to use another means of communication during the period of interruption, the Customer must pay the charges for the alternative service used.

CONSUMER TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICESECTION 3 - GENERAL REGULATIONS*3.7. CONNECTIONS

3.7.1. General - When Customer Equipment is connected to CTS it must comply with Part 68 of the FCC's Rules and Regulations, 47 C.F.R. Part 68 (commonly known as the FCC's Registration Program). When any equipment or system which is not subject to Part 68 of the FCC's Rules and Regulations is connected, the Minimum Protection Criteria specified in this tariff must be met.

CTS offerings are not represented as adapted for connection to other services or Customer-provided communications systems.

The Company is responsible for the quality of transmission from station to station.

3.7.2. Responsibilities of the Customer - When Customer equipment or a Customer-provided communications system is connected to CTS, the Customer assumes responsibility for the connection as follows:

A. Compatibility with CTS - The Customer is responsible for the compatibility of its equipment or system with CTS. This responsibility applies at the initial installation and on a continuing basis as long as the connection is made.

B. Interface Information - The Customer must specify the type of interface which is required to enable the equipment or system to function with CTS.

C. Interference and Hazard - The operating characteristics of the Customer equipment or Customer-provided communications system connected to CTS must not interfere with, or impair, any of the services offered by this Company. In addition, they must not endanger the safety of Company employees or the public, damage or interfere with the proper functioning of Company equipment, or otherwise injure the public in its use of CTS.

D. Changes to CTS - The Company is not obligated to alter or modify CTS because of additions or changes to Customer equipment or a Customer-provided communications system.

E. Testing and Maintenance - If a trouble condition occurs on an assembly, the Customer must determine whether the fault is in (1) the connected Customer equipment or Customer-provided communications system, or (2) CTS. The Company will test and maintain only CTS.

The testing of CTS will usually be made from a central office. The Company will not dispatch a repair person to a Customer's or User's premises if a trouble condition (or suspected trouble condition) exists on the local exchange service. The Customer is responsible for requesting such dispatch from the provider of the local exchange service. The Customer is also responsible for the payment of such provider's charges, if any, for the dispatch.

CONSUMER TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICESECTION 3 - GENERAL REGULATIONS*3.7. CONNECTIONS (continued)*3.7.3. Responsibilities of the Company

A. General - The Company will furnish and maintain its service components in a manner suitable for CTS. The Company will make available information as required by Part 68 of the FCC's Rules and Regulations (e.g., the number of ringers that may be connected to a particular line). In addition, the Company will be responsible for the compatibility of its equipment or services with CTS when such equipment or services are connected to CTS at a central office.

B. Changes in Components, Operations, or Procedures - The Company is not responsible to any party if a change in its CTS components, operations, or procedures, which is consistent with the Registration Program, (1) affects any facilities, Customer equipment or Customer-provided communications systems provided by others in any way, or (2) requires their modification in order to be used with CTS. However, if such changes can be reasonably expected to materially affect the operating or transmission characteristics of the CTS or render any Customer equipment or Customer-provided communications system incompatible with CTS, the Company will provide adequate notice, in writing, to allow the Customer an opportunity to maintain uninterrupted service.

3.7.4. Connection to a Customer-provided Communications System or to Service(s) Provided by Others - Any system or service connected to a CTS offering must be operated and maintained so it will work satisfactorily with CTS. Connections to CTS will be made in accordance with the following:

A. Answer Supervision - Answer supervision must be provided when a CTS offering is connected to switching equipment or a Customer-provided communications system which is not subject to Part 68 of the FCC Rules and Regulations, 47 C.F.R. Part 68. In such cases, the equipment or system must provide answer supervision so that the measure of chargeable time begins upon the delivery of the CTS call to the switching equipment or to the equipment connected to the communications system and ends upon termination of the call by the calling party.

B. Minimum Protection Criteria - The connection at the station used for CTS must be made so that it continually complies with the specified Minimum Protection Criteria (see Minimum Protection Criteria, Section 3.7.5.).

C. Customer-provided Communications System Failures - When a Customer-provided communications system fails and the connection to CTS is not through switching equipment, the Customer-provided communications system must be arranged to promptly return the CTS to an idle (on-hook) state. In addition, the Customer must notify the Company when the Customer-provided communications system fails.

CONSUMER TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICESECTION 3 - GENERAL REGULATIONS*3.7. CONNECTIONS (continued)*3.7.4. Connection to a Customer-provided Communications System or to Service(s) Provided by Others (continued)

D. Use of Satellite Facilities - If a Customer-provided communications system uses satellite facilities (directly or indirectly), and is connected to CTS, there may be two or more satellite links involved in the combined connection. In such cases, the Company will not be responsible for any deterioration in transmission. It will continue to furnish CTS using the service components that it considers to be appropriate. Credit allowance will not be granted unless the CTS offering is interrupted.

3.7.5. Minimum Protection Criteria

A. General - Minimum Protection Criteria have been specified so that Company personnel, equipment, and services will be protected from the harmful effects of signal power overload, hazardous voltages and longitudinal imbalance. Minimum Protection Criteria apply to the direct electrical, acoustic, or inductive connections of Customer Equipment, test equipment and Customer-provided communications systems to CTS.

B. All Connections - Customer equipment, test equipment and Customer-provided communications systems which are connected to CTS on a direct electrical basis or an acoustic or inductive basis, must comply with the following:

1. To protect other Company services, it is necessary that the signal which is applied at the station meets the following limits:

(a) Metallic VoltageI. 4 kHz to 270 kHz

Center Frequency (f) Of 8 kHz Band	Maximum Voltage in All 8 kHz Bands	Metallic Terminating Impedance
8 kHz to 12 kHz	- (6.4+12.6 log f) dBV*	300 ohms
12 kHz to 90 kHz	(23 - 40 log f) dBV	35 ohms
90 kHz to 266 kHz	- 55 dBV	135 ohms

*dBV = 20 log₁₀ voltage in volts

II. The root-mean-square (RMS) value of the metallic voltage components in the frequency range of 270 kHz to 6 MHz shall, averaged over 2 microseconds, not exceed -15 dBV. This limitation applies with a metallic termination having an impedance of 135 ohms.

SECTION 3 - GENERAL REGULATIONS

3.7.5.B. All Connections (continued)

(b) Longitudinal Voltage

I. 4 kHz to 270 kHz

Center Frequency (f) Of 8 kHz Band	Maximum Voltage in All 8 kHz Bands	Longitudinal Terminating Impedance
8 kHz to 12 kHz	$-(18.4 + 20 \log f)$ dBV	500 ohms
12 kHz to 42 kHz	$(3 - 40 \log f)$ dBV	90 ohms
42 kHz to 266 kHz	- 62 dBV	90 ohms

*dBV = $20 \log_{10}$ voltage in volts

II. The root-mean-square (RMS) value of the longitudinal voltage components in the frequency range of 270 kHz to 6 MHz shall, averaged over 2 microseconds, not exceed -30 dBV. This limitation applies with a longitudinal termination having an impedance of 90 ohms.

2. To prevent the interruption or disconnection of a CTS call, it is necessary that the signal power applied at the station be limited. Specifically, the signal at the station shall at no time have energy concentrated solely in the 2450 to 2750 Hz band. If there is signal power at the station in the 2450 to 2750 Hz band, it must not exceed the power present at the same time in the 800 to 2450 Hz band.

C. Direct Electrical Connections - In addition to the regulations in B., preceding, Customer equipment, test equipment and Customer-provided communications systems which are connected to CTS on a direct electrical basis must comply with the following:

To prevent excessive noise and crosstalk, it is necessary that the power of the signal presented at the serving office not exceed 12dB below one milliwatt when measured over any three second interval. To insure that this limit is not exceeded, the power of the signal which may be applied by the Customer Equipment, test equipment or Customer-provided communications system to the station will be specified for each Customer location. In no case shall the power exceed one milliwatt.

D. Acoustic or Inductive Connections - In addition to the regulations in B., preceding, Customer equipment and Customer-provided communications systems which are connected to CTS on an acoustic or inductive basis must comply with the following:

To prevent excessive noise and crosstalk, it is necessary that the power of the signal which is applied by the equipment to the station located on the Customer's or User's be limited so that the signal power does not exceed 9dB below one milliwatt when averaged over any three second interval. However, to permit each Customer, independent of distance from the serving office, to supply signal power which at the serving office approximates 12dB below one milliwatt when averaged over any three second interval, the Company, at the Customer's request, will specify, for each Customer location, the signal power at the station, which shall in no case exceed one milliwatt.

3.7.6. Recording of Two-way Telephone Conversations - CTS is not represented as adapted to the recording of two-way telephone conversations. However, voice recording equipment which is directly, acoustically or inductively connected with CTS may be used for the recording of such conversations subject to the following regulations which have been adopted by the FCC:

A. Recording Requirements - The voice recording equipment must be arranged so that it can be connected or disconnected (or switched on or off) at the will of the Customer. In addition, one of the following conditions must apply:

- All parties to the telephone conversation must give their prior consent to the recording of the conversation, and the prior consent must be obtained in writing or be part of, and obtained at the start of, the recording, or
- All parties to the telephone conversation must be verbally notified at the beginning of the conversation and the notification must be recorded as part of the call, by the recording party, or
- A distinctive recorder tone, repeated at intervals of approximately fifteen seconds, is required to alert all parties when the recording equipment is in use. The distinctive recording tone can be provided as part of (1) the recording equipment, or (2) registered or grandfathered protective circuitry.

A broadcast licensee shall be exempt from the above recording requirements provided at least one of the following requirements is met:

- the licensee informs each party to the call of its intent to broadcast the conversation; or
- each party to the call is aware of the licensee's intent to broadcast the call; or
- such awareness of the licensee's intent to broadcast the call may be reasonably imputed to the party.

3.7.6.B. Exceptions - The FCC has established the following exceptions to the foregoing requirements:

1. Recordings made of incoming calls to telephone numbers publicized for emergencies involving health or safety of life and property (e.g., emergency situations involving fire, health care, police, public utilities and emergency road service) and outgoing calls made in immediate response to such calls. Included in this exception are:

(a). Recordings made at the United States Department of Defense Command Centers of emergency communications transmitted over the Department of Defense's private line system when connected to CTS.

(b). Recordings made by the United States Nuclear Regulatory Commission of the Department of Energy with respect to the telephone systems located at its Operations Center.

2. Recordings of calls made for patently unlawful purposes, such as bomb threats, kidnap ransom requests and obscene telephone calls. Outgoing calls made in immediate response to such calls are also excepted. Included in this exception are:

CONSUMER TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICESECTION 3 - GENERAL REGULATIONS

3.8. RATE DETERMINATION - The rate for a CTS call which is charged on a per call basis is determined by factors such as:

- The distance between the rate centers of the originating (calling) station and the terminating (called) station the distance between the V&H coordinates of an AT&T Central Office and the rate center of a station or the V&H coordinates of an AT&T Central Office,
- The time of day and the day of week,
- The duration of the call,
- The class of service applicable to the call,
- Other Line charges (when applicable) and,
- The type of egress or terminating service, including, for example, but not by way of limitation, whether international terminations are done via switched or special access, or to a mobile or like service (or to a routing code established for mobile or like services terminations or access) in the non-US country or area.

The specific factors which apply to a given CTS call and their application are listed in the section applicable to that type of call. The regulations pertaining to those factors are as follows:

3.8.1. Distance Measurements - When the distance between the calling and the called stations is a factor in CTS rate determination, the distances are calculated according to the following:

A. The distance between stations in the Mainland, the Mainland and Hawaii, the Mainland and American Samoa, the Mainland and Guam, the Mainland and CNMI, the Mainland and Alaska, Hawaii and Alaska, Hawaii and American Samoa, Hawaii and Guam, Hawaii and CNMI, and Hawaii and the Mainland, is measured on the basis of airline mileage between the rate centers of the stations involved. If one or both of the rate centers involved in the measurement is a zoned city, the following applies:

(1) Where One Rate Center is a Zoned City - Calculate the airline mileage between the rate center of the specific city zone and the rate center of the distant station. If the mileage determined is 40 miles or less, this is the correct mileage for rate determination. If the mileage determined is 41 miles or greater, recalculate the mileage using the rate center of the distant station and the master rate center of the zoned city (in lieu of the rate center of the specific city zone). This mileage, with a minimum of 41 miles applicable, is the correct mileage for rate determination.

(2) Where Both Rate Centers are Zoned Cities - Calculate the airline mileage using the rate centers of the specific city zones involved in each city. If the calculated mileage is 40 miles or less, this is the correct mileage for rate determination. If the calculated mileage is 41 miles or greater, recalculate the mileage using the master rate centers of the cities (in lieu of the rate centers of the specific city zones involved). This mileage, with a minimum of 41 miles applicable, is the correct mileage for rate determination.

B. The distance between stations in the Mainland, American Samoa, Guam, CNMI, Hawaii, Puerto Rico or the U.S. Virgin Islands, is measured on the basis of mileage rate bands. Mileage rate bands are made up of specified Mainland states and Hawaii as shown on the appropriate rate schedule.

C. The distance between stations in the Mainland and Canada is measured on the basis of airline mileage between the rate centers of the stations involved. If one or both of the rate centers involved is a zone city, the measurement is calculated as set forth in 3.8.1.A., preceding. For service to certain points in specific provinces of Canada (e.g., the Northwest Territories, and all points in the Yukon Territory), the airline mileage is calculated between the rate center of the Mainland station and the rate center for the point of connection with the facilities of the connecting company.

D. The distance between stations in Hawaii and stations in Canada is measured on the basis of zones as shown on the appropriate rate schedules.

E. The distance between stations in the Mainland and Mexico is measured on the basis of airline mileage between the rate center of the Mainland station and the International Boundary point. If the Mainland station's rate center is a zoned city, the measurement is calculated as set forth in Section 3.8.1.A.(1)., preceding. Separate charges apply for the Mexican portion of the service as set forth in the appropriate rate schedules.

3.8.2. Time of Day and Day of Week - The rate charged for a CTS call may be determined in part by the day of the week and the time of day at the originating (calling) station. Different rates may be applicable to a call at different times of the day and on certain days of the week as specified in the appropriate rate section for that call.

3.8.3. Class of Service - For the purposes of rate application, the following classes of service may apply to a CTS call. The classes of service are Dial Station and Collect. The Dial Station class of service includes state-to-state Dial Station and international Dial Station calls. Collect calls covered by this tariff are limited to Collect calls received from international countries/areas that are billed to the Customer's residential telephone account.

Each class of service and its specific regulations follow.

CONSUMER TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICESECTION 3 - GENERAL REGULATIONS*3.8. RATE DETERMINATION (continued)*3.8.3. Class of Service (continued)

A. Dial Station - Dial Station rates apply to 1) calls billed to the Customer's residential telephone account or cellular account for which the initial subscription to AT&T is made through a local service provider other than AT&T, as specified in Section 4, following, and 2) calls billed to the Customer's residential telephone account under the "Casual Calling Service" specified in Section 5, following. Dial Station rates apply when:

1. The person originating the call dials the telephone number desired and completes the call without the assistance of a Company Operator or the Company's automated operator system, and the call is billed to the calling station. Callers using AT&T Casual Calling Service must first dial the appropriate AT&T carrier access code as specified in Section 5, following.

2. The calling party cannot complete a domestic or international call due to trouble on the telecommunications network, and chooses to re-dial the call.

3. A calling party re-establishes a domestic or international Dial Station call that has been involuntarily interrupted after the station has been reached. Customers may take credit for the interrupted call as specified under Section 3.6., preceding.

4. A call is forwarded by Call-Forwarding Equipment.

5. A Company Operator places a call for a calling party who identifies himself/herself as being handicapped and unable to dial the call because of his/her handicap,

6. A Company Communications Assistant completes a call between persons with hearing and/or speech disabilities who use a Text Telephone (TT) or its equivalent and hearing persons who use an ordinary telephone (the completed call is rated and billed as a call from the calling station to the called station),

7. A Company Operator places a domestic or international call because Automatic Number Identification (0+) is not available for dial completion.

B. Collect - The "Collect" classification of service applies to calls received from international countries/areas that are billed to the Customer's residential telephone account, as specified in Section 6, following. Rates for a Collect call apply when the party at the called number agrees to accept charges for a collect call received from an international country/area.

3.8.4. Determining the Chargeable Time of a Call - The chargeable time for a CTS call is determined by the duration of the call. Chargeable time includes the initial period plus the additional time involved, if any, and is determined as follows:

A. On all calls chargeable time begins when connection is established between the calling station and the called station.

B. Chargeable time ends when the calling station "hangs up." If the called station "hangs up" but the calling station does not, chargeable time ends when the connection is released either by automatic timing equipment in the telecommunications network or by the Company operator.

C. When CTS is directly connected to a Customer-provided communications system at a Customer's or User's premises, chargeable time for all classes of service begins when a CTS call terminates in, or passes through, the first Customer Equipment on that Customer-provided communications system. It is the Customer's responsibility to furnish appropriate answer supervision to the point of interface with the CTS so that chargeable time may begin.

3.8.5. Determining the Applicable Rate in Effect

A. For calls between the Mainland, American Samoa, Guam, CNMI, Puerto Rico or the US Virgin Islands and international locations, the rate in effect at the calling station at the time the connection is established applies to the entire call.

B. For all other calls when a call is established in one rate period and ends in another rate period, the rate in effect at the calling station for each rate period applies to the portion of the call occurring within that rate period. When a unit of time is split between two rate periods, the rate applicable to that unit of time is based on the rate period in which it began.

C. Chargeable time for a rate period (e.g., 8 AM - 5 PM) begins with the first stated hour (e.g., 8 AM) and continues to, but does not include, the second stated hour (e.g., 5 PM).

3.8.6. Call Forwarding - Call Forwarding is an Exchange Service feature offered by certain Local Exchange Companies or other providers of the call forwarding feature. This feature enables Customers to arrange for incoming calls to be automatically forwarded to a different telephone number designated by the Customer. The charges for a forwarded call are as follows:

1. A charge for the portion of the call from the calling station to the called station (call forwarding number), if applicable,
2. A charge for the portion of the call from the call forwarding number to the terminating number designated by the Customer,

For a Collect Call received from an international country or area that is placed to a call forwarding number, the Collect Call charges apply to the portion of the call described in 1., preceding, if the call is answered at the terminating number. If the portion of the call described in 2., preceding, is a state-to-state call, it will be billed at the Dial Station rate from this tariff.

For a Collect Call which is not accepted by a party at the terminating number, for the portion of the call described in 2., preceding, the Dial Station rate in effect in this tariff will be charged to the call forwarding number location.

3.8.7. International Terminations - AT&T reserves the right to block calls to routing codes or numbers identified as a termination type carrying a surcharge or other differential rate for termination where AT&T reasonably believes or discovers that the called station or termination point is not in fact of the termination type to as to which the surcharge or other differential rate has been agreed with the terminating carrier.

The specific regulations involved and the action(s) which will be taken by this Company are as specified in Sections 3.9.2., 3.9.3., 3.9.4. and 3.9.5., following.

3.9.2. Interference, Impairment or Improper Use - The Company may temporarily restrict service immediately when a Customer violation results in any of the following:

- subjects Company or non-Company personnel to hazardous conditions as specified in Section 3.7.2.C. (Interference and Hazard) preceding,
- circumvents the Company's ability to charge for its services as specified in Section 3.2.5. (Fraudulent Use) preceding, or
- results in an immediate harm to the CTS network or other Company services as specified in Section 3.7.5. (Minimum Protection Criteria).

In such cases, the Company will make a reasonable effort to give the Customer prior notice before restricting service.

If a Customer fails to comply with Sections 3.2. (Use), 3.7.2.C. (Interference and Hazard), 3.7.4.A. (Answer Supervision), 3.7.4.C. (Customer-provided Communications System Failures), and 3.7.5. (Minimum Protection Criteria), preceding, the Company may, on ten days written notice by certified U.S. Mail to the Customer deny requests for additional service and/or restrict service to the non-complying Customer. If the Company does not deny or restrict the service involved on the date of the ten days notice, and the Customer non-compliance continues, nothing contained herein shall preclude the Company's right to deny or restrict the service without further notice.

When a violation results in a denial for additional service and/or restriction of service, the denial and/or restriction will be removed when the Customer is in compliance with the regulation and so advises the Company.

The Company may temporarily restrict the ability of 800 callers using CTS from certain telephone numbers when calls from those numbers are made to gain unauthorized access to a CTS Customer's outbound calling capabilities on an unauthorized basis, or are otherwise made in violation of Sections 3.2.3. and 3.2.4.C., preceding. The Company will notify the party responsible for the affected telephone number by letter within 48 hours of the restriction. The restriction will be removed within six days, but will be reimposed if unauthorized access to a CTS Customer's outbound calling capabilities on an unauthorized basis, or abusive calling recurs. After the second restriction, calling will only be reinstated after the Company discusses with the party responsible for the calling telephone number a method to prevent access to a CTS Customer's outbound calling capability on an unauthorized basis or abusive calling.

7.1. GENERAL - This section contains regulations, rates and charges applicable to the provision of interstate Access Services provided to Residential Customers by AT&T who obtain Residential local exchange service from AT&T under its general and/or local exchange tariffs.

The provision of such services by AT&T as set forth in this section does not constitute a joint undertaking with the Customer for the furnishing of any service.

Unless the service description expressly provides otherwise, the services in this section are only available to AT&T Residential Customers who obtain Residential local exchange service from AT&T under its general and/or local exchange tariffs.

7.2. A END USER COMMON LINE, AKA SUBSCRIBER LINE CHARGE - AT&T will provide End User Access Service to Customers who obtain Residential local exchange service from AT&T under its general and/or local exchange tariffs. End User Access provides for the use of an interstate End User Common Line (EUCL). Telephone numbers, detail billing, directory listings and intercept arrangements are not included with End User Access.

The Residential EUCL individual line rate, as set forth in Section 8.7.1., applies each billing month to each Residential local exchange line. This charge may appear on the Customer's AT&T billing statement as the "Subscriber Line Charge" or, for Customers in California as the "Network Access for Interstate Calling."

(C)

7.3. PRESUBSCRIPTION - Presubscription is the process by which Residential Customers may select and designate to AT&T an Interexchange Carrier (IXC) for completing interLATA, interstate and international calls (the Customer's Primary Interexchange Carrier (PIC)) without an access code. The Residential Customer's interLATA PIC must be the same as the PIC for interstate and international calls, except in Hawaii where Customers can select a separate international PIC.

1. Residential Customers will be asked to presubscribe to a PIC at the time they place an order with AT&T for Local Exchange Service. Except as may otherwise be provided in this tariff, they may select either of the following options:

- designate an IXC as their PIC and dial 10XXX or 1010XXX to reach other IXCs, or
- designate that they do not want to be presubscribed to any IXC and choose to dial 10XXX or 1010XXX for all Calls to all IXCs.

There will be no charge for this initial selection, provided that it is made within thirty (30) days following placement of an order with AT&T for Local Exchange Service. If a Residential Customer elects to change a PIC selection or make an initial PIC selection more than thirty (30) days following placement of their order, the PIC Change Charge as specified in Section 8.7.2.A. will apply.

2. Only one PIC may be selected for each individual line, except for Customers in Hawaii where they can select a PIC for interstate and a PIC for international.
