INTERSTATE DOMESTIC ACCESS SERVICES

Section 2 - GENERAL REGULATIONS (cont'd)

2.7 Payment Arrangements and Credit Allowances (cont'd)

2.7.1 Payment of Rates, Charges, and Deposits (cont'd)

B. Payment for Service

The Customer is responsible for payment of all charges incurred by the Customer or other users for services and facilities furnished to the Customer by the Company. All such payments are due within thirty (30) days after the invoice date. Any objections to billed charges must be reported to the Company or its billing agent within ninety (90) days (commencing five (5) days after remittance of the bill) All undisputed portions of the bill must be paid by the due date to avoid late payment charges, if any. Late payment charges do not apply to unpaid balances associated with disputed amounts unless the dispute is resolved in favor of the Company, then any payments withheld pending settlement of the dispute shall be subject to late payment charges applied retroactively to the original due date(s) of any unpaid amounts.

C. Deposits

The Company reserves the right to examine the credit record of the Customer. If the Customer's financial condition is unknown or unacceptable to the Company, the Customer may be required to provide the Company with a security deposit which the Company may apply against overdue charges. The following regulations apply:

1. The amount of the deposit shall not exceed the actual or estimated rates and charges for the service for a two (2) month period.
2. The deposit in no way relieves the Customer from complying with the Company's regulations as to the prompt payment of bills at presentation.
3. At any time, at its option, the Company may return the deposit or credit it to the Customer's account.
4. When the service to the Customer is terminated, the amount of deposit will be credited to the Customer's account and any credit balance refunded.
