PUBLIC VERSION

As shown in the attached Appendices A, B, C, D and E, the Ameritech Operating Companies have satisfied the Phase II triggers specified in Section 69.711(c) of the Commission's rules and thus should be allowed to utilize the Phase II pricing flexibility specified in (4) above for the Jackson, MI; Louisville, KY-IN; Hamilton-Middletown, OH and Saginaw-Bay City-Midland, MI MSAs.

Pursuant to paragraph 172 of the Pricing Flexibility Order and section 1.774 of the Commission's rules, the Commission has determined that a price cap LEC may satisfy its burden of proof for the applicable trigger by demonstrating that the points specified therein have been met. Upon review of the attached Appendices the Commission should find that the Ameritech Operating Companies have duly met their burden of proof and should be granted the specified types of pricing flexibility so that it may further competition in the Fort Wayne, IN; Jackson MI; Saginaw-Bay City-Midland, MI; Cincinnati, OH-KY-IN; Louisville, KY-IN; Hamilton-Middletown, OH MSAs and Non-MSA wire centers located in Wisconsin.

DESCRIPTION OF METHODOLOGY

To obtain Phase I relief for dedicated transport and special access services (excluding channel terminations between an end office and end user customer premises), it must be shown for each MSA/Non-MSA that unaffiliated competitors have collocated:

(1) In fifteen percent of the petitioner's wire centers, and that at least one such collocator in each wire center is using transport facilities owned by a transport provider other than the price cap LEC to transport traffic from that wire center; or

(2) In wire centers accounting for thirty percent of the petitioner's revenues from dedicated transport and special access services other than channel terminations between LEC end offices and end user customer premises, determined as specified in § 69.725 of this part, and that at least one such collocator in each wire center is using transport facilities owned by a transport provider other than the price cap LEC to transport traffic from that wire center.²

PUBLIC VERSION

The same triggers are used for Phase II eligibility except the percentages are increased to fifty percent for wire center collocation and sixty-five percent for wire centers revenues.³ Section 69.711 of the Rules, 47 C.F.R. § 69.711, governing pricing flexibility for end user channel termination services, establishes like triggers with required percentages of 50 percent (collocation) and 65 percent (revenues) to qualify under Phase I and 65 percent (collocation) and 85 percent (revenues) for Phase II relief .⁴

Attached hereto as Appendix D is a description of the Methodology used to obtain the collocation and revenue information relied upon to support this Petition.

CONCLUSION

The Commission should grant this petition as the Ameritech Operating Companies have shown that they are entitled to the requested Phase I and Phase II relief for the relevant services in the MSAs and Non-MSA identified herein.

Respectfully submitted,

AMERITECH ILLINOIS
AMERITECH INDIANA
AMERITECH MICHIGAN
