ACCESS SERVICE

2. General Regulations (Cont'd)2.3 Obligations of the Customer (Cont'd)2.3.10 Determination of Interstate Charges for Mixed Interstate and Intrastate Switched Access Service (Cont'd)

- (B) For usage sensitive (i.e., access minutes and calls) chargeable rate elements, multiply the percent interstate use times actual use times the stated tariff rate.

The interstate percentage will change as revised usage reports are submitted as set forth in 2.3.9.

2.3.11 Provision for Customer Audits

Upon thirty (30) days' written notice, the customer shall have the right to access all information, data and records necessary to audit, trace and verify the accuracy of access bills rendered to the customer for usage in connection with MTS, WATS and other services. A comprehensive audit of the access bills can be conducted by the customer not more than once per year. Examinations of specific questions and issues may be undertaken more frequently.

(C)

(C)

Information required for either comprehensive audits or specific examinations will be provided in a mutually agreeable format. Requests for call details must be made in writing with specificity to Billing Account Numbers (BANs), invoice dates, traffic types and end offices. Requests for call details submitted within 60 days of the billing date will be satisfied by the Telephone Company with Call Detail Records (CDRs); requests submitted beyond 60 days of the billing date will be satisfied by the Telephone Company with internal billing system summary usage records. The usage dates of either the CDRs or the summary records required for the call details requests shall be mutually agreed by both parties but shall not exceed 6 months prior to the date of the customer request.

(N)

(N)

Each party shall bear its own expenses in connection with the conduct of an comprehensive Audit (review) or a specific examination. Special data extractions required by the customer to conduct an audit or examination will be paid for by the customer. For purposes of this regulation, a "special data extraction" shall mean the creation of records that cannot normally be created by the Telephone Company's currently available software programs. If the Telephone Company changes software programs and as a result of this change previously available data records would be considered special extractions, the Telephone Company must retain the ability to extract that data for one year at no charge to the customer. After that time, the use of those data records would be considered a special data extraction, cost to be borne by the customer. The Telephone Company's costs of providing call details fulfilling customer requests exceeding more than two invoices per BAN per calendar year shall be borne by the customer.

The provisions of section 2.4.1(B)(3)(b)-(c) regarding billing disputes apply to a customer's payment of invoices associated with either comprehensive audits or specific examinations.

2.3.12 Theft

The customer shall reimburse the Telephone Company for any loss through theft of facilities, apparatus, or equipment utilized to provide services under this tariff as the customer designated location or at the end user's premises. The amount of reimbursement shall be the actual cost for replacement of facilities, apparatus, or equipment lost, plus labor costs as specified in Section 9.2.

2.3.13 Sectionalization and Trouble Reporting

The customer will be responsible for reporting troubles sectionalized to Telephone Company facilities and/or equipment. When trouble cannot be clearly sectionalized to the Telephone Company facilities and/or equipment, the Telephone Company will test cooperatively or independently to assist in trouble sectionalization.

2. General Regulations (Cont'd)2.4 Payment Arrangements and Credit Allowance (Cont'd)*2.4.1 Payment of Rates, Charges and Deposits (Cont'd)

- (E) The Telephone Company will render to the customer access bills in either paper or, only for those access services for which the Telephone Company is technically capable, electronic medium.

In instances where the customer has requested and is receiving the invoices electronically and has also requested to receive a duplicate of the invoice in the paper medium, the customer shall bear the Telephone Company's costs in generating and rendering to the customer the paper bills. The Telephone Company may also assess to the customer the Telephone Company's costs in generating and rendering to the customer subsequent copies of invoices, either electronic or paper, that have been previously rendered, either via paper or electronic medium, to the customer. The Telephone Company's costs in generating and rendering additional copies (i.e. more than one) of bills to the customer will be borne by the customer.

ACCESS SERVICE

4. End User Access Service

4.1 General Description

The Telephone Company will provide End User Access Service (End User Access) to End Users who obtain Local Telephone Service from the Telephone Company. Local Telephone Service is provided under the Telephone Company's General and/or Local Exchange Tariffs, or under a service catalog or generally available price list where such service is not required to be tariffed.

(C)
(C)

End User Access provides for the use of an End User Common Line (EUCL) service by an end user.

Use of a Common Line is provided 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

4.2 Limitations

- (A) A telephone number is not provided with End User Access.
- (B) Detail billing is not provided with End User Access.
- (C) Directory listings are not included with End User Access.
- (D) Intercept arrangements are not included with End User Access.
- (E) Lifeline Assistance plans may eliminate End User Access Charges to certain qualifying end users.

4.3 Liability

The regulations as set forth in Section 2.1.3 preceding apply to a customer provided with End User Access Services.

ACCESS SERVICE

4. End User Access Service (Cont'd)

4.7 Payment Arrangements and Credit Allowance (Cont'd)

(B) Cancellation of Application

End User Access is canceled when the order for the associated service is canceled. No cancellation charges apply.

(C) Changes to Orders

When changes are made to orders for the local exchange service associated with End User Access, any necessary changes will also be made for End User Access. No charges will apply.

(D) Allowance for Interruptions

When there is an interruption to End User Access, no credit will be allowed for an interruption of less than 24 hours. The customer will be credited for an interruption of 24 hours or more at the rate of 1/30th of the Common Line per month charge for End User Access for each period of 24 hours or major fraction thereof that the interruption continues from the time of notice to the Telephone Company that an interruption has occurred.

(E) Temporary Suspension of Service and Promotions

When the Telephone Company applies a percentage discount to the charge for local exchange service to an end user due to a temporary suspension of service or a promotional offering under the terms of its local exchange tariff or other governing document, the EUCL will be discounted by the same percentage as the local exchange service. A Lifeline customer who is not charged a EUCL does receive any additional discount under this paragraph.
