Qwest is filing tariff language in its Tariff F.C.C. No. 1, Section 13, Miscellaneous Services, to add a Labor Charge for the Configuration of Optical Services. This charge will cover specific customer requests that involve only labor, including testing and maintenance, not covered in other sections of the tariff.

As part of this filing Qwest is also adding language in Section 5, Ordering Options for Access Service. This language will exclude the Nonrecurring Charge for the DS1 Environmental Cabinet when the installation due date for the associated DS1 is missed and the customer is eligible for the Service Guarantee Provisioning Credit for the DS1. This change is being made to ensure that costs associated with the Environmental Cabinet are being recovered.
